Corner Crash Kills One, Injures Two

Front end of the coal truck on the right shoved the engine of this late model car almost out of its housing. Open door of the car shows where driver Mrs. Olive Edith Davidson, 2963 Westdowne, fell out onto pavement and was killed. On extreme left police are placing the body in the police ambulance. Her two grandchildren were injured.—(Colonist photo by Jim Ryan.)

Grandmother Dead In Traffic Accident

Two Grandchildren In "Fair" Condition

A 65-year-old grandmother was killed in an accident at Hillside and Shelbourne yesterday afternoon. She was the second person to die in traffic in Victoria this year.

Mrs. Olive Davidson, 2963 Westdowne Road was killed almost instantly when the late model car she was driving collided with a coal truck.

Her two grandchildren, who were passengers in the car, suffered multiple injuries but are in "fair" condition in Royal Jubilee Hospital.

They are Brian Davidson, 9, and Heather Davidson, 7. Brian is suffering from an injured left eye and shock and Heather, a possible fractured left arm and internal injuries.

Parents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. R. Herbert Davidson, 3145 Alder.

DOOR OPENED

Police say the heavy coal truck, driven by Peter Podgorenko, 919 Johnson, was traveling south on Shelbourne when it was in collision with the passenger car which just pulled out from near the stop sign on Hillside in a easterly direction.

The impact threw open the door on the driver's side of the passenger car and Mrs. Davidson is believed to have fallen to the street and under the rear wheels of the truck.

Damage to the passenger car was extensive and to the coal truck, light. The truck driver and passenger, Louis Podgorenko, 919 Johnson, were not injured.

Police are continuing their investigation. No charges have been laid. Date for the inquest had not been set late last night.

City police arrived on the scene of the accident a few minutes after it occurred and found the injured children being cared for in the Shelbourne Drug Store. The dead woman was lying on the road.

Victor Sage, 30 Burnside Road, who was having coffee in a store at 3093 Shelbourne, heard the crash as the two vehicles ground together. He phoned the police.

Service station operator, J. H. Mullard, said he saw the impact.

"That corner needs an electric stop sign," he said. "I have told the police many times there would be a fatality there."

BULLETINS

Fall Fatal

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25 (CP)—Joseph Pako, 56, died in hospital today 15 hours after he fell from the roof of his home. A member of the family told police Pako fell 12 feet while clearing ice from an eavestrough and struck his back on the rear steps.

Bush Fires Costly

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 26 (Saturday) (AP).—Bush fires sweeping extensive areas of New South Wales and Victoria have killed four persons and devastated hundreds of thousands of acres of grazing land.

Egypt Reported Preparing Diplomatic Break With U.K.

ISMAILIA, Egypt, Jan. 26 (Saturday) (CP)—A pro-government Cairo newspaper reported today that Egypt will break relations with Britain as a result of the Suez Canal zone battle Friday that killed and wounded many Egyptian police.

A diplomatic break has been carefully sidestepped through the more than three months of undeclared hostilities in the zone. The newspaper Al Misri said the cabinet made the decision Friday night.

The Egyptians reported their dead numbered 46 and the wounded 73 in the biggest single battle between British troops and Egyptian police.

British sources said unconfirmed reports showed they lost four military personnel killed and nine wounded.

The battle was fought for six hours at Ismailia, midway point on the 104-mile-long canal.

The four-hour cabinet meeting ended without any public announcement. Reporters were told at midnight merely that "the discussion is still open" and that the cabinet will meet again Sunday.

(The Admiralty in London announced British warships are sailing from the mid-Mediterranean island of Malta possibly headed for Suez.

(The Admiralty declined to identify the ships, but London reports said they included the aircraft carrier Ocean, two cruisers and seven destroyers.)

The British Suez commander, Lt.-Gen. Sir George Erskine, Friday sent troops against Egyptian police whom the British accused of tolerating and abetting sniper and bombing attacks.

Regular and auxiliary police, ordered to resist to the end, surrendered after they had spent all of their 60,000 rounds of ammunition.

The chief of police proclaimed a state of emergency in Cairo, and his 4,000 police took up emergency stations before foreign embassies, legations and consulates.

French Besieging Tunisia's Cape Bon

TUNIS, Tunisia, Jan. 25 (CP).—French troops clamped a state of siege on Tunisia's Cape Bon today and opened a hunt for armed Arab Nationalists who have been demonstrating violently for home rule.

Scarlet-capped Zouaves manned the siege line, running from Bou Nicha and cutting across Cape Bon at its base.

Tanks rumbled into the area and helmeted infantrymen began a house-to-house search.

Usually reliable sources said 40 Nationalists were arrested and quantities of arms were seized in the first two towns searched—Soliman and Menzel Bou Zelfa.

The area under siege is Tunisia's northeast section, jutting out into the Mediterranean south of Tunis. It includes the village of Hamman Lif, home of the 72-year-old Bey (ruler) of Tunis.

A similar military operation was executed at the walled inner section of Sousse, an east coast seaport which has been the scene of both bloodshed and sabotage.

The action followed a week of bloody violence staged by Tunisian Nationalists to draw attention to their demands for the right to run their own domestic affairs under French protectorate rule.

King George Grants Massey Brief Audience

LONDON, Jan. 25 (CP)—The King granted an audience today to Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, who will soon take up his new appointment as Canada's first native-born Governor-General.

The audience was announced briefly in the official court circular. It supplied no further details.

It is customary for the King to see higher government officials before they go to new appointments.

Massey's appointment and the retirement of Viscount Alexander, whom Massey succeeds, were announced from Buckingham Palace Thursday night and confirmed at Ottawa in a statement by Prime Minister St. Laurent.

The exact date of Massey's assumption of office was not disclosed. It was announced in Ottawa today that he will return to Canada early next month.

Viscount Alexander relinquishes his post Jan. 28 and is to assume "other responsibilities." In London today a government source said Prime Minister Churchill soon will turn over Britain's defence ministry to the field marshal.

Lord Alexander, 60, is regarded as one of Britain's greatest generals.

Anti-Stalin Jokes Offered to Russia

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25 (INS).—Allen A. Arthur 32, editor of the University of Southern California humor magazine Wampus, cabled the editor of Krokodil, Russian humor magazine, in Moscow today to determine if Communists can laugh.

Arthur's cable read:

"Our stock anti-Truman jokes running low. Hear you have inexhaustible supply. Our supply anti-Stalin jokes limitless. Suggest exchange and publication. Will run all your anti-Truman jokes verbatim for all your anti-Stalin stories you use verbatim. Great curiosity here to know if Communists can laugh."

Dairymen Ask Board Change

Victoria local of Vancouver Island Dairymen's Association will ask for the resignation of the two newest members of the provincial milk board and appointment of two producer members.

The local last night passed a resolution that "we ask the cabinet for the resignation of the two new members on the milk board and replace them with two practical men, one from Vancouver Island, the second from the mainland."

John Oliver presented the motion after reporting on two meetings with Agriculture Minister Harry Bowman.

"The first was almost disastrous," he said.

The second, with Up-Island members and Saanich M.L.A. Arthur Ash, was a good meeting, at which Mr. Bowman suggested farmers present a plan, Mr. Oliver said.

He questioned why Mr. Bowman is "opening his arms at a late hour when he had many opportunities to encourage the department to assist the industry, a dying industry."

Presenting his motion, Mr. Oliver said the time is opportune to do what should have been done months ago and what any other organization "bumped from pillar to post" would have done.

The motion passed unanimously.

Association secretary Henry G. Robinson gave figures showing the decreased amount of milk shipped in commenting on the freight rate increase sought by three Island trucking firms.

The figures given were for the first 15 days of January, 1952, with comparable figures for the similar 1951 period in brackets.

From Sooke, 108 cans (281); Duncan, 1,315 (1,324); Cedar, 703 (783); Saanich, 1,650 (2,325). The average decrease is 19 per cent, he said.

"For every dollar the trucking firms are losing, farmers are losing $20." Mr. Robinson said he had learned.

Comments were few on Vancouver reports that nearly all milk price controls would be abolished but it was indicated the local would support a move to make sure feed prices are in line if a floor price is set on the farmers' operations.

Budget Surplus Climbs Despite Defense Costs

OTTAWA, Jan. 25 (CP)—Although defense expenditures are double the amount of a year ago, the federal government's budgetary surplus climbed to $721,600,000 in the first nine months of the current fiscal year.

The monthly treasury report, issued today by the finance department, showed that revenues for the nine months ended Dec. 31 totaled $2,804,300,000 and expenditures $2,082,700,000. In the corresponding period of 1950-51, revenues totaled $2,049,600,000 and expenditures $1,628,400,000.

In his budget speech last April, Finance Minister Douglas Abbott estimated that his surplus for 1951-52 would total about $30,000,000. Last fall, he revised his estimate and said he might have a surplus of between $200,000,000 and $300,000,000.

Defense expenditures in the nine-month period totaled $769,900,000 compared with $372,600,000 in the corresponding period of 1950-51. This indicated that the defense department still has unspent close to $1,000,000,000 of the more than $1,700,000,000 voted by parliament last spring for defense expenditures.

The revenues for this year were boosted by receipt of the first installment from the United Kingdom of a $2,500,000,000 loan granted in 1946. An interest payment of $23,700,000 was credited to revenues. Britain also paid $14,000,000 on the principal of the loan.

Corporation income tax showed the largest of the increases in the revenue section. Receipts from the tax were $270,100,000 higher at $795,850,000 than in the corresponding nine months of the previous fiscal year.

The department said the increase was due to the increased rates of taxation imposed in the September, 1950, and April, 1951, budgets.

Personal income tax collections, as a result of higher personal incomes and higher taxes, were $238,100,000 greater at $699,700,000.

Casey, Gibbs Voice Favor Of Committee

Agreement to enter an intermunicipal committee came yesterday from Saanich reeve Joseph Casey and Reeve P. A. Gibbs of Oak Bay.

"We were in accord last year on garbage disposal," said Reeve Gibbs. "I would be only too glad to attend. However, I see nothing else calling for attention at the present. If other problems arose Oak Bay would be prepared to attend."

He could see no necessity for a continuing committee, he added.

Reeve Casey said he had no objection to the committee except for each municipality concerned having equal representation.

The committee has been suggested by Reeve A. C. Wurtele of Esquimalt. He said this week he would obtain opinions from Saanich, Oak Bay and Victoria.

Reeve Wurtele indicated that if the committee was formed, garbage disposal jointly from the four districts would remain at the top of the agenda.

War Threat Decried By Gen. MacArthur

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS).—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, on the eve of his 72nd birthday, emphatically stated today that "a third world war is neither imminent nor inevitable."

In an exclusive interview, held in his towering Waldorf Astoria suite, the general asserted that he had not changed his mind about either the improbability of a great war or his estimate of the Truman administration's "misguided" military and diplomatic prosecution of the cold war.

The general, nattily dressed in a grey herringbone suit, referred this writer to his speech before the American Legion convention at Miami last October, in which he accused the administration of wasting the country's human and material resources through "timidity" in Korea and profligacy in western Europe.

"I stand by that," he declared.

MacArthur disclosed that he will continue to take his position "to the people," and has accepted at least two speaking engagements prior to the Republican national convention in Chicago—where he also will speak.

"The speeches will follow the general line I have pursued in other talks since returning to the country," he said.

Cleared for Removal

Denuded prior to eventual removal by the city parks department, contentious cottonwood tree at Blanshard and McLure stood stark against the grey sky yesterday. Subject of months of heated controversy in city council, the huge tree is being removed finally to permit road construction at the recommendation of city engineer Cyril Jones. Roy Davis and Windy Johnson, employed by tree surgeon Charles Cowie, are doing preliminary topping.—(Colonist photo by Jim Ryan.)

U.S. Protests Futile As U.N. Backs Russia

PARIS, Jan. 25 (CP)—The United Nations political committee voted over strenuous United States objections today for a Russian resolution calling, in effect, for a "horse-trade" which would admit 14 applicants to U.N. membership, including five from the Soviet bloc.

It was the first time in U.N. history that the political committee passed a major Russian resolution attacked by the United States.

The vote was 21 to 12 with 25 abstentions. The Asian-Arab and Scandinavian states, Israel and Yugoslavia were among those backing Russia.

The margin was not enough to get approval of the full U.N. assembly where two-thirds majority is necessary for passage. But if one country swings from abstention to support the resolution in the plenary session, the recommendation that the 14 applicants be reconsidered will go to the Security Council.

The Soviet made it clear that it would refrain from vetoing the western applicants it has turned down in past if the west would accept Soviet applicants. The west has never vetoed the Soviet bloc applicants but has always failed to give them the seven votes needed in the 11-member Security Council.

The committee also approved a Peruvian resolution which would call on the council to reconsider all 16 applicants who failed to make the grade. The Peruvian resolution proposes that applicants be considered on merit only.

Canada abstained on both resolutions. While the Canadian delegation did not participate in the latest debate, External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson has said that Canada was coming around to the idea of universal membership although it still rules out applicants who flagrantly violate the U.N. charter. This would include Communist China.

The U.S. argued that each applicant should be judged on merit.

Early Meeting May Decide February Session Plans

The government's plans for the February session of the Legislature may be completed at a cabinet meeting Tuesday.

The meeting will be attended by Education Minister W. T. Straith, who will arrive by air from Mexico early Tuesday.

It is believed the cabinet has held up its decision on session strategy until Mr. Straith's return.

Premier Byron Johnson is known to favor a short session at which the house would be asked to pass a budget and only a few pieces of vital legislation.

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer, the Premier's right-hand man, surprised observers when he returned from Europe by declaring that the government should brave out a full-scale session.

He said important amendments to the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration, the Workmen's Compensation and the Hospital Insurance Acts should be enacted at once.

Inquiry boards investigating the three acts are winding up their business and preparing to report to the Legislature Feb. 19.

Mr. Straith's opinions may swing the cabinet one way or the other.

Whatever the government decides to do, it will have opposition.

If it decides on a short "care-taker" session, the eight-member C.C.F. bloc will set up a clamour charging the Liberals with using the untouched inquiry board reports as election bait.

If it decides on a full-length session, the 11-man Conservative squad, newly out of coalition with the Liberals, will fight every inch of the way.

Police Seeking City Woman On Mainland

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25 (CP)—Police here have been asked to look for a Victoria woman missing since last June 13.

She is 42-year-old Mrs. Olive Josephine Law, and at the time she left her home to take the midnight boat to Vancouver, police say she had on her person more than $3,000 in jewelry.

At first her family was not too concerned about her whereabouts, as it was thought she might have gone to visit relatives in Calgary.

But no word has been received there or in Nanaimo where a sister resides.

She is described as: Five feet 3½ inches tall, blue eyes, slight build, a burn scar on the right shoulder and a skin graft mark on the left leg. She was wearing a blue suit, fawn shortie coat, brown hat, a wedding ring and three other rings set with diamonds.

Freedman Plans Bid In Provincial Election

P. B. Freedman, retired auctioneer known as Freeman of London, has announced he will run for the provincial legislature in the coming elections.

The fiery veteran auctioneer was an unsuccessful but lively candidate in the December civic elections. He openly supported the platform of the present mayor Claude L. Harrison during his campaign at that time.

Mr. Freedman told The Colonist yesterday he had been approached "by a certain political party" and asked to run in the provincial elections.

"I can't say which party just now," he said. "But I definitely intend to run."

Mr. Freedman did say he was very interested in the platform of the Social Credit League.

"My platform will certainly be along the same lines," he added. He also stated that it was not the Social Credit group that had approached him.

A resident of the city for about seven years, Mr. Freedman has been prominent in the news on several occasions, chiefly in 1950 when he offered to auction Prince Robert House for the city at no cost.

Born in Mayfair, London, in 1896, Mr. Freedman has lived in Canada 23 years. He served during the First World War in the Royal Flying Corps and the R.A.F.

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

Time Magazine, in naming the tearful Dr. Mossadegh man of the year recently, declared that he "oiled the wheels of chaos."

The Concise Oxford Dictionary defines chaos as "Formless void or great depth of primordial matter . . . utter confusion."

Will someone please tell me how utter confusion can have wheels? Wheels imply orderly, planned movement. And if chaos did have wheels, they would certainly be [illegible] oiling them would be a foolish project. Perhaps that was what Time magazine meant, but I doubt it.

Perhaps there was a mad, perverse logic about the utterance, like a picture that shows eyes and hands sprouting from lamp posts. But I think it was one of those thin figures of speech that crumble to dust when you look at them. Wheels of chaos, indeed.

Do you want to help Victoria's hurt, sick and unwanted animals? The S.P.C.A. is launching a drive for new members. It costs only $1 a year to belong, and there are no strings attached. You won't have to work in the office or anywhere else, officials point out.

If a member wants to take on some duties, however, the society can soon find an unpaid job for him.

Junior members are also sought, at 50 cents a year.

Victoria S.P.C.A. has only 500 members, which isn't much in a town of 100,000 with a reputation for loving animals. Victoria S.P.C.A. receives no subsidy.

Handicraft notes, from The New York World-Telegram and Sun . . . A New York firm grosses $70,000 a year delousing wild mink pelts by a secret process. Mink are "just plain lousy" when trapped, they say. No one else has learned how to prepare the solution into which the furs are dipped to remove the cooties . . .

Some 200 small New York firms still make quality cigars by hand. Sole survivor of the three large hand cigar plants which thrived there a century ago is H. Anton Bock and Co., which employs 100 cigarmakers . . .

You can't buy California wines in B.C., as we have been reminded here lately. One of the most famous "firms" of California vintners is Christian Brothers, a religious order. They are content with a yield of less than two tons of grapes per acre, compared with 15 squeezed out by mass-production vintners. Clusters are picked by hand at the exact moment they are ready. Wines age in small oak casks for years, and are released only after personal inspection by the cellar master of the monastry.

It was only in 1937 that overstocked cellars turned the Brothers from makers solely of sacramental wine into suppliers of a national brand.

The Brothers get no pay. Money from the wine supports the headquarters of the order and 88 institutions of learning.

Dairymen Ask Board Change

A motion was passed that the B.C. Dairymen's Association press for a uniform system of grading for shippers to the fluid market throughout the province.

The local also endorsed some resolutions passed by Duncan local this week for presentation to the association's convention at Nanaimo, Jan. 29 and 30.

The convention will be asked to press for legislation banning use of oleomargarine and powdered milk in hospitals.

Expansion of the provincial Cow Testing Association also will be sought through the association, as well as government action to increase the percentage of the budget alloted to the agriculture department.

The association also will be asked to insist that a producers' representative be on the milk board.

Producers expressed pleasure with a report that a member had brought feed oats from the prairies to the province at a cost of $47 a ton, when the same purchase through a company would cost approximately $70.

Investigation will be made of the "farmer to farmer" purchase system, applicable in carlots.

Brain Abscess Found Cause Of Baby Dying

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25, (CP) — Death of an 11-months-old baby, who died less than 12 hours after he was discharged from St. Paul's hospital, was caused by a brain abscess, it was reported today.

The baby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bouzovstsky, had been in hospital since Jan. 5 for treatment of spinal meningitis. He was released from hospital after he had developed measles.

Coroner John Whitbread held an autopsy at the request of the father.

The abscess was an obscure complication following severe meningitis, and had no connection with measles. Medical authorities said it would have proved fatal regardless of whether the child was at home or in hospital.

A city by-law requires all general hospitals to discharge patients with any contagious disease.

Production Workers Earn Average $67.36

Jack Frost Tries Hand at Murals

Fantasies winter frost paints on window-panes have always amazed youngsters. These, photographed on panes of Saskatchewan's greenhouses behind the legislative building, tax even an adult's mind to put words to their beauty. Temperatures in Regina, hovering below zero for many days, have wrought similar art works throughout the city.—(CP photo.)

Royal Role Of Canada Held Safe

OTTAWA, Jan. 25 (CP). — Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said with emphasis today that the official term "royal" stands in no peril from his government and added that he wouldn't object to seeing Canada called a kingdom instead of a dominion.

A government man-duck without the words "Royal Mail" on its side stopped outside his office window as he told these things to a 90-minute press conference causing chuckles all around. But the prime minister reiterated that neither the term royal mail nor any other proper use of the term royal stands in jeopardy and it would be "silly" to suggest that they should.

He championed the Commonwealth's monarchical-cabinet-system of government as the best yet devised and struck back on three fronts at any suggestions that his government is taking steps which might weaken Canada's ties with the Crown.

PASSION FOR DETAIL

Speaking with a lawyer's passion for detail and with a party leader's sense of parliamentary battles that may soon break on these issues, he said:

1. It's beyond him how all the controversy grew up about alleged government plans to eliminate the term royal mail. Nothing has been done and nothing will be done to interfere with use of that term even though the government still is trying to find out how it originated.

2. The official name of Canada is Canada. Both the British North America Act of 1867 and the Westminster Statute of 1931 say so. In rooting the term "Dominion of Canada" from official laws and documents, the government is simply "trying to correct an error" that has crept into official usage. But people who want to wipe out the term dominion entirely are going too far.

LIKE IT OR NOT

3. Whether her people like it or not — and some Canadians think it implies inferiority, he said Canada is a dominion just as Ontario is a province and Ottawa a city. The Confederation Law—The B.N.A. Act—specifically says the three provinces existing in 1867 "shall form one dominion under the name of Canada."

$1,000,000 Cost to B.C. Of Rate Rise

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25 (CP). — The 4½ per cent increase in freight rates announced in Ottawa today will cost British Columbia consumers $1,000,000 or more this year.

Most of the cost will be borne by residents in the interior of the province because the increase is principally on freight charges on shipments from secondary distributors.

Estimates of the added cost to B.C. range from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000. It will be added to the estimated $5,000,000 boost that followed the 12 per cent increase in July.

The bill will be paid mainly by farmers, ranchers and the general storekeepers in small towns.

Freight Rate Increase of 4½ Per Cent Granted Railways Until August, 1953

OTTAWA, Jan. 25 (CP). — A 4½ per cent general increase in rail freight rates was authorized today by the board of transport commissioners.

The board extended its list of customary exemptions from the increase to take in potatoes, coal and coke.

Partially exempted from the effects of the increase were sand and gravel for building, crushed stone and fuel wood. The decision to enlarge the scope of exceptions was unanimous.

The board put a time limit—Aug. 31, 1953—on the duration of the new increase and the temporary one of 12 per cent.

The new increases, estimated unofficially to come to about $20,000,000 a year, become effective on 30 days' notice by the railways, probably about Feb. 11.

Presumably, the effect of the two increases will be reviewed in mid 1953. Under previous board practice, they would continue indefinitely.

Mr. Justice J. D. Kearney, chief commissioner, said the higher rates are necessary now but "should not become embedded permanently in the freight-rate structure."

"The board proposes that instead of seeking future increases the railways explore the advisability of raising "schedule A" rates in Ontario and Quebec, lower-than-normal tolls used for carrying commodities from central distributing points; export and import class rates in Ontario which are lower than United States to which they are supposed to be related; charges on some low-grade commodities which now may be carried at less than the railways' cost of haulage, and rates on some commodities between Vancouver and Edmonton that are lower than the prairie basis.

The board observed that one dollar will move a ton of freight 75 miles in Canada now, compared with 60 miles in the United States in 1950 and that rates since the war are up 70 per cent, compared with a jump of 91 per cent in the cost-of-living index.

Winch Sees Patronage In Naming of George

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25 (CP). — Harold Winch, head of the C.C.F. party in B.C., today called for the immediate dismissal of Percy George as chairman of the Public Utilities Commission.

The appointment of the former mayor was termed as "flagrant political patronage a straight political appointment" by the C.C.F. leader.

Premier Byron Johnson announced Mr. George's appointment yesterday.

"I am amazed that a badly defeated government candidate should be appointed," said Mr. Winch. (Mr. George was defeated in the Esquimalt by-election by a C.C.F. candidate.)

"It is an insult to the intelligence of the people. What it means is that a candidate is told that if he wins he will get $3,000 a year as a member; if he loses, he will get a $10,000 appointment.

"With all due respect to Mr. George, he is not the man for the job."

Newspaper Reactions Vary At Appointment of Canadian

(By the Canadian Press)

Newspapers across Canada have reacted variously to the appointment of Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey as Governor-General of Canada. None, however, had anything but praise for the man himself in their editorials.

Following are some typical comments:

Vancouver Daily Province (Ind.) — "The Canadian people will hope that this experiment proves a happy one. . . . If there is one element of doubt in the appointment it is the fact that his early career was definitely connected with one political party. . . . It may be that if a Liberal government had made the first appointment of a Canadian as governor-general from among those who had no record of party adherence, they might have avoided some criticism."

The Calgary Herald (Ind.) — "On Thursday evening the government turned its back on a noble tradition and took the first big step towards abolishing the position of Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada. . . . We offer no apology to anyone for saying forthrightly that, to us, this is a drab and melancholy milestone in Canadian history. . . . It is an ineradicable black mark on this government's record, and we predict that the men responsible will live to regret . . . this week's stealthy, furtive, weak-willed and knavish work. . . . We are not attacking the man who is to be the first and rightfully proud holder of that high office. . . . If a Canadian it had to be, then he is as eminently suited as any and better than most . . . but it did not have to be a Canadian and it should not have been a Canadian."

Toronto Star (Ind. Lib.) — "It took a long time to happen, but Canada has at last taken a step in self-determination which forward-looking autonomy-loving Canadians have anticipated for many years."

Quebec L'Evenement-Journal (Ind.) — "There is . . . no reason to celebrate, nor criticize this event, the significance of which is limited to a change in the historical tradition."

The Halifax Chronicle-Herald (Ind.) — "Whatever the sentiments, before this nomination, of those who were against the appointment of a Canadian to this post of eminence under the Crown, the nomination of Mr. Massey will meet with general approbation and praise, not unmixed with some degree of pride that Canada has at her call a son of such parts as to merit and receive this accolade from the King."

Oddities

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 25 (Reuters) — A new dodge to regain possession of a house when his tenants refused to move was used by landlord Ulf Lallerstedt.

Ulf connected an old air-raid siren to a battery and an alarm clock and locked the apparatus in the cellar of the house.

Every hour the siren went off, making life unbearable for the tenants. They went to police.

Charged with tresspassing, Lallerstedt said: "I was just trying out a new invention."

PARIS, Jan. 25 (Reuters)— The U.N. social committee, already hopelessly behind schedule, has set a record for a procedural tangle.

The Soviet Union has introduced an "amendment to the amendment by the United States, to the amendment by the U.S.S.R., to the amendment by Afghanistan, to the amendment by the United States to the joint draft resolution by Afghanistan, Burma, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Lebanon, Pakistan, Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Syria and Yemen."

The resolution concerns references to national self-determination in the draft covenant of human rights.

Parents Hold Religious Orgy After Adopted Child Strangled

WINNIPEG, Jan. 25 (CP) — A little brown-haired girl was found slain in her home today after police interrupted her foster parents in a bizarre, outdoor prayer session in a nearby vacant lot.

Police said the parents would be charged Saturday with murder.

The victim was Martha Louise McCullough, 7. Her foster parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gavin McCullough, both in their late 40's.

Mr. McCullough has been accountant and office manager of the Winnipeg Chamber of Commerce.

Police Chief Charles MacIver said the child was hit with a bottle and strangled as she lay in bed after her parents had taken part in an all-night session of prayer.

A neighbor said she called police when she saw the couple praying in a vacant lot about noon. Despite sub-zero weather, she said, Mr. McCullough wore only a nightshirt. His wife wore a chenille housecoat and bedroom slippers.

They knelt at opposite ends of a pile of surplus pipes. Periodically the woman would rise as if to go but the man would restrain her, she said.

Police said that when they arrived the husband told his wife that he loved her.

Later, when they entered the house and discovered the child's battered body, the woman was quoted as saying to her husband:

"If you love me and love the Lord you will get all these men out of here."

Neighbors told of the couple's religious zeal. They said the McCulloughs, who have a son attending university, had adopted the little girl when she was six months old.

Recently, neighbors said, the couple had regularly attended a series of "faith healing" services. It could not be learned whether they sought cure for any ailment.

The child was said to have been in good health and "very bright."

"Her parents loved her and were proud of her," a neighbor said.

M.L.A. Urges Action on Acts

PENTICTON, B.C., Jan. 25 (CP) — Maurice Finnerty, M.L.A. for Similkameen, said here today that the long-promised changes in the Hospital Insurance Act, the Workmen's Compensation and the Industrial and Arbitration Acts should be dealt with at the next session of the B.C. legislature opening Feb. 19.

He told delegates to the sixth annual convention of the Federation of Fruit and Vegetable Workers' Union (T.L.C.) that "organized labor has been looking forward to the long-promised changes."

He said that some political leaders had proposed that these changes be shelved until after the next election.

"I, for one, believe that the changes should be made at the forthcoming session," said Mr. Finnerty.

Services' Centre Needed

NOT alone now but to a growing degree in the future as Canadian defense services are expanded Victoria will have need of a recreation centre for uniformed personnel at liberty. This has been a garrison town almost since its inception, needs no prompt-ings on its obligations to men in uniform, and probably has a much higher percentage of ex-service men and women resident among its citizens than is general in Canada. The question is one that calls for co-operation between federal and municipal authorities somewhat along the lines that obtained during the last war, when Prince Robert House was operated by the Navy League of Canada with full co-operation all round. It is pity that that arrangement was ever broken up, even though it provided for only one of the three armed services.

The position now is that there is no suitable off-duty recreation centre for the uniformed services here. We are not thinking of the assertion made by a few individuals that Victoria is cold to the home guard, any more than this community blames the services for the action of scattered individuals who on occasion may not live up to the tradition of their uniforms. The vast majority of all men in uniform are good, sound Canadians, away from their homes and strangers in what is to them new territory. A cheery, well-run recreation centre where men could spend their off-duty time, get a meal and a bath, a change of clothing or a bed for the night if necessary, is almost an essential requirement of the social and human circumstances involved. Also any provision made in that direction today would have to be more comprehensive than before.

Having ascertained the need, this community should now prospect every available means towards filling it. What might be too big for the municipalities alone to handle might well come within reach with the help of federal and other agencies. At the core of the question is the morale in the three armed services, and that is an important consideration. In so far as Victoria citizens go, they have always shown themselves to be in the forefront of every practical gesture that can be made to the men in uniform, who are doing a good job for the nation as a whole.

He Was Our Good Fortune

NOW that the Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey's appointment as the next Governor-General has become official Canada has a parting tribute to pay to Viscount Alexander, who will leave Rideau Hall after six years of unusually fine service as the King's representative in this Dominion.

Few if any of his predecessors have been better liked or have fitted in so neatly to the Canadian pattern of life. It is true that this coast does not know him so intimately as does Eastern Canada, where perforce his duties mainly kept him, but the regret being expressed there over his departure will be shared generally across the land. Lord Alexander managed to combine the dignity of his high office with the kind of human approach that won the respect and affection of all the King's loyal subjects in this broad land.

The famous field marshal returns to take up an important post in England, reputedly as defense minister in the Churchill government, an appointment which if confirmed would recall Kitchener's tenure as war secretary in the Asquith administration. Not often do military men hold office in British governments, although in this instance Lord Alexander would become the second general of the recent war to hold current cabinet rank, Lord Hastings being the other.

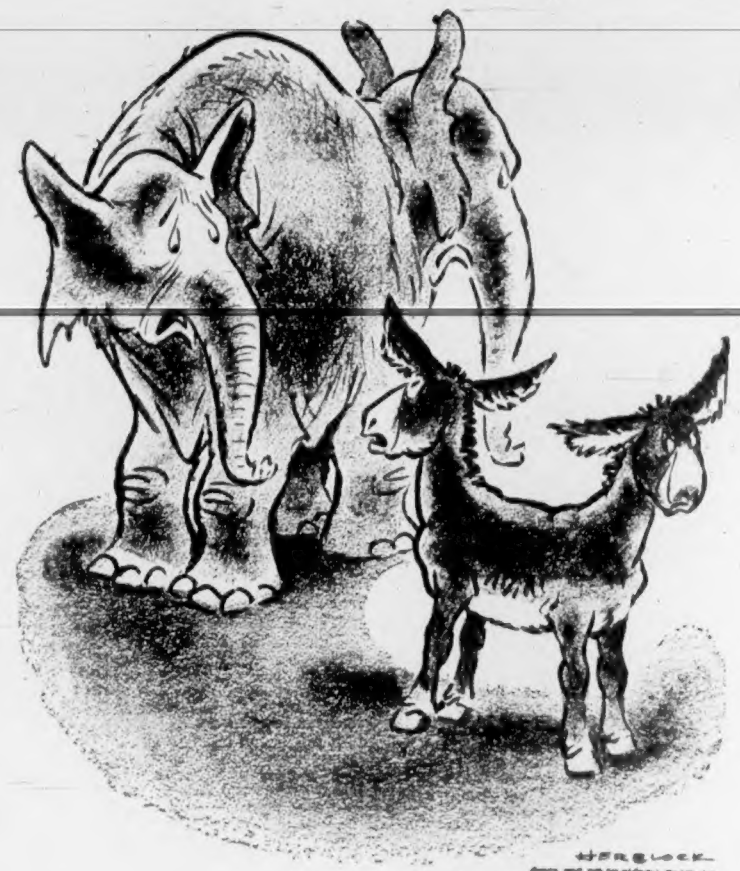

The projected employment of Viscount Alexander in this important manner emphasizes the good fortune of Canada in having him at its disposal during the past six years. He is a man of quality who has honored the Dominion by being its Governor-General. The prime minister has made it clear that future vice-regal incumbents may come from any part of the Commonwealth, but if it should happen that Lord Alexander is the last Briton to hold this office it is appropriate that he should have had this distinction. In him the long-established tradition found no better example of a man suiting his position in every way. The good wishes of Canadians will follow the Viscount and his family when they leave Canadian shores in final farewell.

Paying Through the Nose

WHEN the Dominion withdrew its tacit support through the Bank of Canada for its own bond issues in the hands of the public, including seven outstanding Victory loans, it automatically set in motion a chain of circumstances which has forced up interest rates and embarrassed provinces and municipalities in their legitimate needs for fresh borrowings. It makes small difference whether this was done to freeze hundreds of millions worth of federal bonds in the hands of their holders, or "to curb inflation" as apologists for the regime at Ottawa declare. Certain results were bound to follow. The latest evidence of that is Manitoba's new $10,000,000 loan, which will cost the taxpayers of that province 4.17 per cent in Canadian funds.

Among the most secure of the western provinces geographically and economically, Manitoba will be paying the highest rate for its borrowings it has known in a good long while. What Manitoba municipalities now will have to pay for their new or refunding issues devolving from that remains to be seen. The same situation, in varying degrees depending on the strength of their own resources, affects each of the 10 provinces and literally hundreds of municipalities throughout the country. This may indeed help "to curb inflation," but it is apt also to reduce numbers of municipalities to the point where provincial, if not federal, action may have to be taken to help them out. Either that, or their public works may come to a full and complete stop with severe damage to their services.

The theory that higher interest rates will cut down the volume of provincial and municipal spending cannot stand by itself in a vacuum. At the same time the Dominion is arranging to spend more than ever before in a peacetime budget, and this has to be filled from taxation; while the municipalities at the end of the same chain cannot let their roads rot into holes and fissures without serious consequences. In the long run this means of "curbing inflation" may well boomerang on the Dominion with higher costs for everything it needs. Since the Dominion has no pocket save that of the public, the result will come to rest there.

"I have the same trouble."

THE LATE J. S. M. LANGLOIS

Sir,—May I say a few words about a colleague and close friend of mine who passed away this month in Victoria? I am referring to Jean Sandfield MacDonald Langlois, late professor of history and French at the Canadian Services College, Royal Roads.

For myself, I speak as the one who succeeded Jean Langlois in the history department at Royal Roads in the fall of 1948 when he left for a new post in the east. I found what half a decade of Royal Roads service graduates had found, that though their college was young, it already had some traditions centred around the personality of Professor Langlois.

I had to fill a gap left by Professor Langlois whose fluid and colorful lectures lived permanently in the imagination of his cadet pupils and whose close participation in cadet activities was not as much of his own doing as upon the insistence of his cadets.

He was descended in part from an earlier Sandfield MacDonald, a prominent Ontario Scot from Glengarry County and an associate of the Fathers of Confederation. Professor Langlois himself was French Canadian. He presented in the union of these two names, many of the best qualities of our French and English heritages.

Royal Roads will be as an armed services institution, 10 years old this year. A decade's span is a mere nothing in the history of academic institutions and academic traditions. But Royal Roads already has some traditions, and has fine ones, thanks in part to Jean Langlois.

All his fellow staff members as well as the navy, army and air force cadets of the years 1944 to 1952 will bear witness to his place in our brief college life.

Canadian academic life and Canadian pedagogy will be the poorer by his passing.

BUTTLE LAKE

Sir,—Amusingly, the honorable M.L.A. for Saanich in a letter to the press attacking the defenders of Buttle Lake, Strathcona Park, wrote: "The time has come when those in responsible positions should acquaint the public with the facts." The writer cordially agrees.

The comptroller of water rights, whose decision this member of the legislature supports, has declined to give any clear "facts" as to why he granted the application of the B.C. Power Commission to utilize Buttle Lake.

Furthermore, the B.C. Power Commission, which is a public body maintained by the public purse, refused to disclose their rate structure at the public inquiry held during last August, a very important "fact" to every taxpayer.

If the case of the power commission is sound and Arthur J. R. Ash, M.L.A., claims it is, why keep these essential "facts" secret?

Generously, the M.L.A. proceeded in his letter to give some "facts" which would read very favorably for the power commission, if they were correct. Mr. Ash contends that the cost of damming Buttle Lake would be approximately $2,241,220. But he neglects to disclose in this calculation that no value for compensation is included for crown land and the great quantity of valuable timber which would be logged in this operation.

Alternatively, the M.L.A. states the cost of construction at Upper Campbell Lake would be around $5,803,465, an impressive sum indeed until it is broken down. Mr. Ash failed to show in his letter that of this amount the sum of $2,667,000 is proposed to be paid in the form of compensation. Therefore, if fairly presented the respective costs of construction do not amount to anywhere near a difference of $3,500,000, as Mr. Ash declares.

Of Gratitude

By FRANK KELLEY

MAYBE in the far-off future, if the earth survives man's efforts to destroy it, Canada will be absorbed by the United States. If so, geography will probably be the determining factor and not the solicitation of a United States senator. For the continent of North America, as someone long since said, was apparently laid out with such physical metes and bounds as to warrant its inclusion in a single political reality.

I remember reading something like that when some Canadian writer, whose name I do not recall (such is the meed of fame), was doing some missionary work on behalf of settlement in Canada's vast unpeopled areas.

* * *

That writer wanted to see Canada grow in manpower and gird itself for any possibilities which might chance to shape political unity between all the peoples calling three and one-half million square miles of land and fresh water home and the far more densely populated areas of the slightly smaller mileage adjoining it.

He was advocating the assisted entry of large numbers of immigrants to help with the land's development and at the same time to offset the "drawing-off" racket that was absorbing more of of Canada's youth than was good for the land of their birth and upbringing.

Probably those of Canadian origin below the border may have some weight in the final disposition of Canada. One also gathers there are still some folk making their home in Canada who would like to see the land part and parcel of the United States in a hurry. But they are probably not legion.

* * *

Evidently not the noisiest vociferators for their contentions, one can appreciate there is a fairly large section of Canadians who might do more than talk to maintain some connection whereby British people could go along, if not in an imperialistic block, at least as an aggregation of sovereign states having the same ideals and aims which enabled the present members of the British Commonwealth to attain their standings linked with such words as Dominion, Royal and sovereign, for instance, now seemingly banished from our political lexicons.

All this does not mean the real Canadian will take much offense, from what a United States congressman is trying to get his colleagues to undertake at the present time. One can imagine they will finally, after all is said and done, stay with the combination known as the Commonwealth, which might be of great leavening value in the immediate future of a topsy-turvy world.

* * *

At the same time, now would seem to be the opportune time for the various units of this same Commonwealth to show where they stand alongside their Motherland. There is no getting away from the fact that the people of the British Isles have nurtured, in a multitude of ways, the lands of our Commonwealth as we know them, enabling them to attain present-day status in spite of world alignments.

Where, one wonders, would Canada have been, to say nothing of the mighty United States, if the folk of the British Isles hadn't gone bankrupt, or nearly so, expending their treasure in North America's behalf in 1914 and 1939? Had Britain taken the count in either of the world wars, North America might have had a different complexity today. Commonwealth countries, at least, should be grateful and "chip in" until it really hurts, making it possible for the Mother Country to gird herself in the further defense of our way of life. That would be something worth aiming at.

Gerald Waring Reports From Ottawa

THE Canadian government is remaining neutral in the clash between the governments at Washington and Albany as to which will control the United States' share of the St. Lawrence power development. But privately, officials here hope it will be New York State.

The disagreement originated in Governor Dewey's efforts to get a green light from Washington to go ahead with the power phase of the St. Lawrence seaway project.

That was three years ago, when the seaway plan seemed hopelessly bogged in the Congress. Dewey and Premier Frost of Ontario were eager to launch a joint power development scheme in the International Rapids section of the St. Lawrence River, while leaving the controversial seaway question to the politicians at Washington and Ottawa.

President Truman opposed the Dewey-Frost scheme on the ground that the St. Lawrence project should be carried out in its entirety, for navigation as well as power, and not piecemeal. On this point, Ottawa did not disagree.

* * *

Since then, of course, parliament has approved the Canadian government's decision to proceed with the navigation works. This Ottawa will do if the Congress does not take action soon to deal the United States in as a full partner in a joint project.

If, as is expected, the Congress still turns down the proposal, then Canada will build the seaway alone. At the same time, Ontario and some appropriate United States agency will finance the $450,000,000 cost of concurrent power development.

Ontario and New York State are ready to split this cost between them, and to share equally in the power generated. However, a complication is that New York has to get approval from Washington before it can enter into an international project with Ontario and Canada. So far Washington has declined to give New York such authority.

The reason is believed to be that the United States department of the interior, which operates several large power projects like Grand Coulee and Boulder Dam, wants St. Lawrence power to be another Federal project.

* * *

Ottawa wouldn't care whether American Federal or New York State authorities handled the United States' half of the power development, except for one thing. That is that New York is ready to go ahead now, whereas the interior department would have to ask the Congress for nearly a quarter of a billion dollars to finance its half of the deal.

And the Congress has been so antagonistic to the St. Lawrence project that Ottawa fears it would refuse to vote the money. Such an eventuality would leave the power project high and dry. Unless Washington then gave it to New York State, it could result in more of the same interminable delay which has blocked the whole seaway project for the last 10 years.

The American opponents of the seaway—the eastern ports and railways, and vested private power interests—aren't merely against United States participation. They're against the seaway, even as a solely Canadian project. And if they thought they could block it by denying funds for the United States' share of power development, there's little doubt that they would try to do so.

Canada and N.A.T.O.

(From Saturday Night)

THE attempt to achieve a fairer distribution of the common defense burden amongst the North Atlantic powers is becoming a serious challenge to our ideas of democracy. Highly qualified international authorities, with all the facts and figures before them, have reported that Canada and Belgium and some other countries are capable of an increased contribution. The Canadian government, along with these others, has been in the process of deciding whether to accept this judgment, to modify it or to reject it. The decision rests entirely with the government of each country in its sole responsibility to its own electorate.

We have no fear at all that Mr. St. Laurent and his ministers will be swayed too much by the advice of any international body and too little by their own electors. The thing which does disturb us is that in reaching these vital decisions the government is immune from the one proper and necessary democratic check. Democracy depends on the assumption that the broad mass of the people, given the facts, will reach the right conclusion upon them. But in this case the people are not given the facts. The people of Canada are not told what N.A.T.O.'s "Three Wise Men" think we should be doing. We are told only what our own government thinks of our effort; and too often our own government's appreciation is frankly vainglorious.

Military security admittedly imposes some secrecy in these matters. But the "Three Wise Men's" suggestions to Canada were not for increased forces. They were for increased aid in arms and raw materials. There may be good reason for resisting them. But it is difficult to feel sure of that without knowing what the suggestions were. There is an unfortunate air of absoluteness about decisions not subject to the judgment of an informed public.

Fun, Fact and Fiction

Something new in civil defense toggery is an atomic radiation-proof jacket made of lead. Since the wearer will be unable to run, he may need this.

* * *

The New York Times expresses regret for using a $ sign instead of one for cents in printing kilowatt-hour costs. It is interesting, though, as a preview of the inflation that may be coming.

* * *

Our present King, whose choice of a new boot for army officers is to be known as the "George Boot", has been a good deal more restrained in matters of uniform than some of his predecessors. It was, for instance, a ruinous business for an officer during the Regency, as in George IV's reign, to have to keep pace with alterations of uniform. The Prince Consort also liked to have his say on such matters, as in the case of the boys of Wellington College, for whom he designed a complete outfit.

The Packsack

Of GREGORY CLARK

THOSE of us who are anglers are aware that it is less than 14 weeks—a mere bagatelle—until trout fishing will be in full flower all across the Dominion; and in some of the peculiarly blessed areas, sooner than that.

Thereafter, month upon month, angling for one sort of fish or another will continue for what amounts to the better part of the year—the better part in quality if not in the calendar sense.

However bad our luck may be in the onrushing season, a certain number of fish are bound to land in our creel. They are fated. They are our fish already, although they do not know it.

There, in the dark, icy pools they lurk, this minute, awaiting their doom, so curiously knit with our luck.

* * *

If they are trout, they have dropped back from the swift riffles and fast waters where, soon, we are destined to meet them, and are lying in the deepest pools, under perilous ice. Many of them have retreated a mile, or five miles, to some lake, where under the massive lid of ice they explore the shadows, picking up what food offers in that half-life or semi-consciousness which is the lot of many fresh-water fishes in winter. But they are our fish, in whatever gloom they lurk. Kismet. It is fated.

If they are bass, or pike, they linger, semi-torpid, amid the shadows, clefts and crevices, their appetites so suspended by winter that only rarely do they feel inclined to move at all in quest of a small hors d'oeuvre or a semi-somnolent minnow.

Hundreds of miles far to sea, sweeping the vast spaces of the ocean the way symphonic chords sweep the air, the salmon, all unaware, are moving our way—to us, individually, to you, me and whatever other Joe is fated with them.

Gentlemen, on this unpropitious January day, I assure you they are in the bag already.

Germany Looks West

VERY likely the turning point in progress toward European federation of some kind was passed when the West German Bundestag voted by a substantial majority to adhere to the Schuman Plan. The parliaments of The Netherlands and France have approved, and those in the remaining countries, Italy, Belgium, and Luxembourg, are reported to be favorable.

There is still a remote possibility that from the current cabinet crisis in France might come an upset for the plan in the land of its origin. There is also the fact that mere integration of the steel and coal production facilities of six nations into one free-trade area does not achieve political federation. But it is a long step in that direction when coupled with the progress in the organization of a single European army by the same nations.

* * *

The vote at Bonn is a triumph both for those who from outside have worked to bring West Germany into the Western defense orbit and especially for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, who took the political risks of championing that course within his country. In the face of opposite criticisms he carried the thesis that through co-operation with the West lay the best prospect for freedom from occupation controls.

Significantly, he won to his side delegates representing the refugees and expellees from East Germany and the Baltic areas, whose chief interests probably are, first, prospects for employment in a busy West Germany and, second, the hope of possible return to their homelands through German unification.

* * *

This latter desire contains potential dangers for the West. Care must be taken that strength for defense is not turned into German irredentism and the Atlantic community thus drawn into war. But there is ground enough in the Potsdam agreement for eventual insistence that the people of East Germany be given some rights of self-determination.

Meanwhile, the progress of limited economic and military union among France, West Germany, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, and Italy gives promise of an improved physical standard of living in Western Europe and an improved ability by this group of nations to assure its own security.

The Teacher

Lord, who am I to teach the way
To little children day by day,
So prone myself to go astray?

I teach the knowledge, but I know
How faint they flicker and how low
The candles of my knowledge glow.

I teach the power to will and do,
But only now to learn anew
My own great weakness through and through.

I teach them love for all mankind
And all God's creatures, but I find
My love comes lagging far behind.

Lord, if their guide I still must be,
Oh let the little children see
The teacher leaning hard on thee.

Inter-Church Youth Week Planned Feb. 3 to 9

Inter-Church Youth Week will be observed by young people all across Canada Feb. 3 to 9.

The purpose of the Youth Week is to promote Inter-Youth Fireside meetings, which have been carried out for several years in other sections of the country.

In Victoria, an Inter-Youth Fireside has been arranged for Sunday, Feb. 3, at 9 p.m. in the Chinese United Church, 528 Fisgard.

The Rev. Douglas B. Carr, B.A., B.D., of the First United Church, will address the group on the theme "Stand Fast in Your Faith."

Young people from all denominations are participating in this service. Art Anderson, vice-president of the Vancouver Island Young Peoples' Presbytery is in charge of arrangements.

SUNDAY in the NEW TESTAMENT!
Cardinal Gibbons in "Faith of Our Fathers," page 111, says: "... is not every Christian obliged to sanctify Sunday and to abstain on that day from unnecessary servile work?" But you may read the Bible from Genesis to Revelation and you will NOT find a single line authorizing the sanctification of Sunday. The Scriptures enforce the religious observance of Saturday—a day which we never sanctify." $6000 offered for a text to prove Cardinal Gibbons wrong.

Activities Progress Well At First United Church

Rev. W. Allan, presiding over the annual meeting of the First United Church, reported that church activities showed encouraging progress in all departments.

The annual financial report was presented by the treasurer and showed a general budget of $6,388, with a further $1,571 having been devoted to the missionary and maintenance fund.

The Sunday school budget was $1,133 with $220 to the missionary fund.

From all church departments $2,376 was sent to church headquarters for missionary purposes.

Officials elected were: Mrs. T. S. Handasyde, A. Schroeder, C. F. Horwood, G. Dyson, W. S. Vint and M. R. Peterson, stewards; F. J. Knudsen and A. H. Cook, elders; Robert Husband, trustee, and F. J. Knudsen and A. MacGinnis, congregational representatives.

Mission Takes Victoria Pair

Harriet Philpot Fowler and her husband, of Victoria, were recently accepted into the Latin Americanf Mission Inc.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fowler have been working with the L.A.M. at Cartagena, Colombia, for the past six months.

Mrs. Fowler served previously in Colombia with the Evangical Union of South America.

She received her missionary preparation at the Prairie Bible Institute of Alberta and the Toronto Medical Institute.

She is the daughter of George Philpot, Seaview Heights, Victoria.

St. Alban's Sets Up Building Committee

Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh, in his annual report to the congregation of St. Alban's Anglican Church, stated that progress had been made in all departments of the church.

The need of new church buildings was noted, and a motion to set up a building committee was passed.

The committee will be appointed by the rector.

Elected to the church committee were: Sir Robert Holland, R. C. Bowen, F. H. Hawes, W. Hamilton, R. H. Dumbleton, L. Stockwell, A. Hemsley, F. Fry, E. J. Crockett and Mr. A. Fussey.

Representatives to the synod are: F. W. Hawes, R. C. Bowen, W. Hamilton and W. H. S. Glew. L. Stockwell was appointed envelope secretary.

F. O. E.
Members are requested to attend funeral of our late Brother W. L. MacDonald, at McCall's Funeral Chapel, Saturday, Jan. 26, at 2.30 p.m.
Worthy President R. M. Barnes.
Secretary G. Goodenough.

LONDON (CP) — Excavators here found the remains of a Saxon cross under the ruins of an ancient London church. The cross is believed to date from the 10th or 11th century.

Stock Stage Recovery At Toronto

TORONTO, Jan. 25 (CP).—Stock market prices recovered strongly today from Wednesday's recession as industrials and western oils gained more than a point on the exchange's indices.

Steels, foods and miscellaneous industrials led industrials with a majority of fractional advances. Papers, utilities, refining oils and textiles drew firm support while agricultures, constructions and banks held gains and losses in balance. Retail stores weakened while manufacturing companies and liquors dipped sharply.

Western oil gains ranged from pennies to about 50 cents. Calgary and Edmonton, Central-Leduc, Jupiter, Security Free, Triad and Pacific Petroleum climbed strongly.

Base metals posted a majority of moderate gains. Anacon Lead, Barvue, Consolidated Smelters, International Nickel and Hudson Bay climbed.

Senior golds were mixed. Secondary issues edged upward.

Smelters Gain

MONTREAL, Jan. 25 (CP).—Stock prices remained irregularly higher at the close today.

The paper group paced the market, followed by beverages, senior metals, utilities and senior oils. Carriers eased a trifle.

Consolidated Smelters, which gained one point in the previous session, rose another to touch 198½. Minor gains were made by Canada Cement, Canadian Celanese, International Paper, Brazilian and Hudson Bay Mining.

Mines tended higher in the afternoon for the first time in five sessions but closed narrowly mixed. Western oils eased a trifle but were mainly unchanged.

Mines and oils lacked features. Anacon, Base Metals, Macdonald, Royran, United Asbestos, Central Explorers and Okalta were up pennies.

Pacifics Advance

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25.—Strength in Silver Standard which rose 17 cents to 2.57 was a feature of trade yesterday. Stocks generally moved higher with Estella at 2.40 another bright mining stock.

Pacific Pete advanced 50 cents to 11.25 in an active oil section, while dime advances were made by Central Leduc 3.10 and Okalta 4.30. Also higher were Amalgamated, A.P. Con., Britalta, C. and E. Calnorth, Continental, Mercury, Mill City, York and United. Lower were Canadian Atlantic, Home, Charter, Dalhousie and Del Rio.

In industrials Alberta Distillers advanced five cents to 3.10.

New York Lively

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (AP).—The stock market rolled quietly through another routine readjustment session today with lively buying activity holding the list fairly steady on the whole.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 10 cents at 101.60 with the industrials down 10 cents, rails down 30 cents, and utilities up 10 cents.

The lower aspect of the average was offset by the fact that out of the 1,154 individual issues traded 507 advanced and 370 declined. There were 46 new highs and 10 new lows for the year.

Turnover in Bonds

LONDON, Jan. 25 (Reuters)—Price changes were mainly small and showed leading industrials firmer but British government funds were easier on the day.

There was a brisk turnover in foreign bonds. Speculators were busy in German issues with buyers switching their attention from the Young loan to the Dawes loan. Japanese were steady.

Gold shares were out of favor and coppers and diamonds, however, were resistant.

LONDON, Jan. 24 (AP)—Stock closings: Babcock & Wilcox 86s, Boots Pure Drug 31s, Canadian Pacific £72¼, Central Mining £1 29/32, Consolidated Gold Fields 47s, 8d, Courtaulds 43s, Hudson's Bay Co. 190s 3d, Imperial Chemical 41s 10½d, Imperial Tobacco 86s 3d, Metal Box 43s 9d, Mexican Eagle 23s 1½d, Rand Mines 120s.

Bonds: British 2½ per cent Consols £60⅞, British 3½ per cent War Loans £80 2/16, British Fundings 4s 1960-1990 £98¼.

Cattle Prices

CALGARY, Jan. 25 (CP)—Calgary livestock market was closing with a strong undertone today and a good demand for all classes of butcher cattle. Offerings continued light, 312 cattle and calves.

Butcher steers and heifers were steady to strong. Cows were strong to 50 cents higher and bulls fully steady. Good stocker and feeder steers and veal calves were closing about steady.

Hogs dropped 25 cents Thursday to close at $27.75. Sows were steady at $17.25, good lambs at $30 and good ewes at $15.00-$16.00.

Good to choice butcher steers 30.00-31.50, common medium 27.00-28.75. Good to choice butcher heifers 29.00-30.50; common to medium 26.00-28.75. Good cows 23.00-24.00; common to medium 19.00-22.50; canners and cutters 15.00-18.00. Good bulls 24.00-25.00; common to medium 21.00-23.50. Good stocker and feeder steers 28.00-29.50; common to medium 24.00-27.50. Good to choice veal calves 33.00-37.00; common to medium 28.00-32.00.

B.C. Action Looms On Rate Inequality

By HARRY YOUNG,
Colonist Business Editor.

News item—Yesterday the Board of Transport Commissioners gave the railways a decision in favor of a 4½ per cent general freight rate increase.

No reasonable person minds paying what he considers to be his fair due. It is when he feels he is being imposed upon that he begins to cut up rough.

Now, if we are to believe D. C. Thomson, vice-president of C.P.R.'s prairie region, and there's no reason why we shouldn't, then it is time Victoria people were asking some pointed questions about an obsolete 1897 agreement that, according to Mr. Thomson, is costing us a lot of money.

The Crow's Nest agreement of 1897, to which Mr. Thomson referred, is still in force. It enables the prairies to ship their grain at the same rates which were considered "cheap" in 1897.

Today those same grain rates are "ridiculous" to quote our own Victoria expert on these matters, Fred Hawes, chairman of the Freight Rates Committee of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

Just how ridiculous they are may be gauged from Mr. Thomson's statement that 36 per cent of the total freight moved in Western Canada (that is the grain movement) yielded only one-half per cent of the total revenue.

It takes no great power of deduction to form the conclusion from these figures that the rest of Canada is being forced into higher general freight rates to subsidize the grain section of the community.

Victoria, which by its most westerly exposure, together with its extra little piece of water transport from the mainland, is most vulnerable of all to any freight increase.

Every time the freight rates go up Victoria gets the full treatment. It becomes a highly dangerous state of affairs and one which has done a great deal towards making Victoria the most expensive place in which to live in all Canada.

Cities and communities who are nearer to the centre of manufacturing and industrial life are not effected by freight rates to anything like the same degree.

No one perhaps would object if the grain freight rate fixed at 26 cents per hundred in 1897, had been increased subsequently pro rata with all other commodity rates. But while the other rates have been increased in order to meet rising costs, the grain rate has remained inviolate.

As Fred Hawes says, no political party is likely to take the lead unless forced to do so by weight of public opinion.

Now is the time for action. The Board of Transport Commissioners is preparing to deal with the matter of freight rate equalization, and Victoria's brief (or should it be beef?) is due in their hands by Feb. 11.

The brief which is being prepared by the Provincial Government in conjunction with the Victoria City Council and the Victoria Chamber of Commerce is a matter which affects all of us, and should merit our support and interest.

FAVORABLE COPPER FINDS

Activity in copper is not confined to British Columbia. One of the biggest developments in recent years is taking place in Northern Quebec in the Chibougamau area, which was recently linked with the Saguenay Valley by a provincial road.

Many of Canada's leading mining and exploration areas have claims in the Chibougamau area, and drilling operations have revealed that gold-copper ores exist in favorable amounts and values.

Among the companies already active are Opemiska Copper, Campbell Chibougamau, and Chibougamau Explorers, who are either drilling or sinking shafts. Another company ready to start diamond drilling is Royran Gold Fields Ltd., which has several properties in the general area.

R. P. Mills, president of Royran, says that the initial drilling will be done on property adjoining that of Opemiska Copper.

CARDIFF, Wales (CP) — Schoolboys started a "gold rush" on a river near here that was drained recently. Boys have made about £3 a day collecting scrap metal found in the mud.

Business Notes

MONTREAL, Jan. 25 — An order, valued at more than $900,000 has been placed by Canadian National Railways for 100 side and centre convertible dumping cars. The new cars will be built by the Canadian Car and Foundry Limited for delivery in March 1953.

Wilrich Petroleums Limited of Toronto, has purchased the assets of Redman Oils Limited and its associate Pioneer Drilling Company, Limited of Winnipeg, Manitoba, subject to ratification by a shareholders' meeting.

Wilrich is purchasing the rights to Manitoba Reservations 20 and 21, containing approximately 43,000 acres in the Birdtail and Russell areas, plus 20,000 acres of freehold leases spread through southwestern Manitoba.

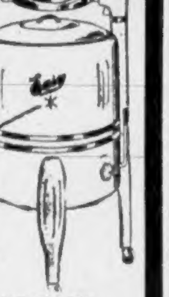

In addition, Wilrich is purchasing considerable equipment, most of which will be used in the Lloydminster area, where Wilrich is continuing its drilling campaign.

Wardens Hot on Trail Of Deer-Killing Dogs

Dogs that track down deer in heavy snow, then attack and kill them are being hunted by game wardens.

Inspector George Stevenson, just returned from an Island tour, said that game wardens are perturbed over the increase in deer-running cases.

"We are going to seize as many of these dogs as possible, and shoot them if necessary," he said.

Inspector Stevenson added that owners without the sense to look after their dogs properly during a hard winter deserve to have them seized or shot.

Address Set By C. D. Howe

Defense Production Minister C. D. Howe will address a meeting of the Victoria Laurier Club Wednesday.

Mr. Howe has accepted an invitation of W. S. Kirkpatrick, president, to visit Victoria.

The meeting will start with a dinner at Terry's at 6.15 p.m.

The minister who is at present making a tour of Western Canada, is scheduled to address the Vancouver Board of Trade, Jan. 28.

His son, Lieut. William Howe, is serving aboard H.M.C.S. Quebec.

Five Cougars Shot

A Sooke man has shot five cougars in five days, all of them in the Jordan River district.

Ted Shaw, accompanied by Morris Ross and his cougar dog, Sam, bagged his fifth cat, a female, Wednesday.

The animal measured eight feet from snout to tail.

Thieves Raid Dentist Office Second Time

Thieves who struck twice in six months at the offices of Drs. W. A. Dennis and K. L. Moysey, dentists, 922 Pandora, won't find the going so easy next time.

Entry to the building was gained through a side window left open Thursday night. Miss-

Last time thieves entered through the same window and made an $80 haul.

"It won't happen again," Dr. Dennis said, "we are having that window fixed."

The Victoria Monument Company, 3091 Douglas, was also the target of burglars. Missing is a few dollars in stamps and an old hat. Police suspect juveniles.

Carpenters Make Protest Over Comox Airport Work

Defense Minister Brooke Claxton has been sent a protest telegram by top officials of the B.C. carpenters' union over conditions at a Comox airport job.

"Seven hundred Island union carpenters are idle and demanding action. They insist 40-hour week and local conditions be made effective, and importation of non-union men from Calgary and other points eliminated, or harmony on all defense projects in B.C. may be jeopardized," the telegram said.

It was signed by William Page, western union representative of the Carpenters' Union (A.F.L.-T.L.C.); R. M. Strachan, B.C. union president; George Cooper, president of Courtenay local; and Victor Midgley, international representative.

The union on Thursday, in conjunction with the Courtenay local, turned down an R.C.A.F. officer's explanation that the Comox repair job is a "national emergency."

The union will clear up the situation if Ottawa does not, the union announced.

It is alleged men on the job are non-union carpenters, evading local working conditions, regarding pay and hours through employment by the R.C.A.F.

Premier Well Satisfied At Massey Appointment

Premier Byron Johnson yesterday expressed satisfaction at the choice of Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey as Canada's first native governor-general.

He said the newly-named governor-general "has rendered outstanding service to his country" and that he is "a worthy choice for this important post."

"I feel that I express the sentiments of all the people of British Columbia when I extend our heartiest and warmest felicitations to him on his preferment," he said.

He also paid tribute to Viscount Alexander who "has endeared himself to the hearts of the people during his tenure of office as governor-general."

Kenney Awaits Briefs On Buttle Lake Appeal

Lands and Forests Minister E. T. Kenney is still awaiting written arguments in the Buttle Lake appeal, he said yesterday.

Last Friday Mr. Kenney heard the first phase of the appeal, in which lawyers challenged his jurisdiction to hear the appeal and the jurisdiction of Water Rights Comptroller E. H. Tredcroft to make the disputed decision.

Mr. Tredcroft, after lengthy public hearings, decided to let the B.C. Power Commission dam Buttle Lake for water-storage purposes.

Only written argument presented so far is that of Deputy Attorney-General Eric Pepler, acting for the B.C. Game Commission.

Other lawyers representing conservation groups are T. G. Norris, George Cumming and Harvey Sedgwick, all of Vancouver.

Supply Warehouse Here First of Type in B.C.

The first supply company warehouse in British Columbia was officially opened by the Canadian Westinghouse Supply Co. yesterday at 831 Yates Street.

J. G. Watson, in charge of the warehouse, said the company hopes to open branches in all major B.C. cities, with Vancouver probably slated as next on the list.

The Victoria warehouse will be sales outlet for the parent company, Canadian Westinghouse Co., and will service all of Vancouver Island.

The warehouse carries a line of motors, apparatus, appliances and electrical supplies, including television. Smaller goods are packaged and arranged on shelves at the front of the warehouse, with larger items, such as conduit cable, in the rear.

B.C. Tourist Traffic At New High in 1951

British Columbia's tourist traffic hit a new peak in 1951, according to figures issued yesterday by Trade and Industry Minister A. D. Turnbull.

During the year, 247,712 foreign cars entered B.C., up 12 per cent from 221,642 in the previous record year of 1950.

Monthly figures showed that traffic fell below 1950 levels only in April and December.

The Government Travel Bureau is now preparing for an even bigger 1952 season.

Failure to Yield Costs $35 Fine

Four motorists paid fines in city police court yesterday for traffic offenses.

Magistrate H. C. Hall fined Harold Klee, H.M.C.S. Ontario, $35 for violating a restricted driver's license, and John P. Metchuk, 933 Southgate, $25 for a similar offense.

A conviction for failing to yield the right of way to a pedestrian cost John Pick, 290 Pandora, a $35 fine.

George M. Sheridan, 123 Lurline Road, was fined $10 for leaving his car unattended with the motor running.

J. R. McIntosh, Powell River, was sentenced to one year in jail for bigamy. Counsel for the accused was Arthur Burns.

Cotnoir Halts Royal Thrust

Ollie Dorohoy (left) of New Westminster Royals gathers in his own rebound after being stopped by Cougar goalie Jerry Cotnoir, who also stopped second shot despite his prone position on ice. Defenseman Fiori Goegan protects far corner of Cougar net while Bob Frampton approaches Dorohoy from rear. Cotnoir played standout game as Cougars battled to 3-3 tie with Royals at Memorial Arena last night.

Next games tonight: Victoria at Tacouver at Saskatoon, Edmonton at Calgary.

Inspired — or goaded — by owner Lester Patrick's appearance on the bench, Victoria's slump-ridden Cougars turned in their best hockey in weeks at Memorial Arena last night. They failed to end New Westminster Royals' unbeaten streak but they gave it a gallant try.

With 4,500 or so fans on hand despite seven successive losses and 10 defeats in their last 11 games, the Cougars skated their way back into favor again although they eventually had to accept a 3-3 draw.

The point enabled the Islanders to take over sole possession of seventh place in the P.C.H.L. and moved them within four points of Vancouver Canucks and the last playoff berth. However, Canucks have played six more games and possibilities of post-season hockey activity here are far from dim.

At 68, probably the oldest man to resume an active role in pro hockey, Patrick decided to take over temporarily to see if he could do something about a slump which was reaching serious proportions. His club responded with a fighting display which might easily have resulted in victory.

IMPROVED DEFENSE

There was a general improvement, particularly noticeable defensively. The defense appeared sturdier and it received help from the forwards. There was a lapse in the third period but the performance was heartening and Cougars need only to produce the same kind of hockey in their remaining games to manage a slice of the playoff pot.

Although outshot, the Cougars probably could be credited with an edge. They were balked in the first period by a brilliant Lucien Dechene and a fluke goal from the stick of Royal coach Jake Forbes, rallied to take the lead in the middle session, and were outplayed in the final 20 minutes as they strove to protect their lead, lost and regained in the first half of the period.

Forbes scored in the last second of the first period when his harmless-looking shot either deflected or caught goalie Jerry Cotnoir off guard. The goal came against the run of the play with the Royals all even only through the fine work of Dechene. The portly netminder was good on shots by Ed Dorohoy and Roger Leger while Roger Roberge served a penalty, stopped when the Cougar forwards broke through on spectacular individual efforts, and was lucky when Leger hit a post.

REGAINS POINT LEAD

Ed Dorohoy, who again took the league scoring lead by figuring in all three Victoria goals, tied it up on a power play early in the second period. Then Andy Hebenton took his centre's pass to put Cougars ahead with a great play, cutting across in front of Dechene after eluding Roberge neatly on the boards.

Royals put on the pressure at the start of the third period and Cougars had some trouble clearing out of their own zone. It eventually cost them the tying goal with Bob Paul taking a pass-out from behind the net and giving Cotnoir no chance.

Bob Frampton got that one back from the face-off, being passed in the clear by Fiori Goegan, who deked both defensemen after accepting Ed Dorohoy's pass. However, the clever Ollie Dorohoy, a source of worry as usual, gave the Mainlanders the tie with a beautifully executed scoring play.

ROYALS NEAR RECORD

The tie extended Royals unbeaten streak to 10 games, one short of the league record, set by the 1948-49 Royals and tied this season by the Cougars, who went five games without defeat at the start after winding up last season undefeated in their last six games.

Butch Houle, New Westminster defenseman, received a sprained shoulder in the second period when he ran into a heavy body-check but his injury was not believed serious.

All eight teams see action tonight. Cougars travel to Tacoma to meet the climbing Rockets, Royals entertain Seattle Ironmen at New Westminster, Vancouver Canucks oppose the Quakers at Saskatoon and Edmonton Flyers play Stampeders at Calgary.

Baseball Drive Has Little Hope

It is beginning to look like the end of professional baseball in Victoria.

With only five days left in which to raise the $35,000 necessary to keep a Western International League franchise in the city, Athletic Booster Club officials, sponsors of the "Save Baseball Fund," exposed a dark outlook for the success of the drive last night. Only $2,400 has been received or pledged to date.

A.B.C. officials expressed keen disappointment at the response to their drive and doubt that the additional $32,600 needed can be raised in the short time remaining.

Chairman Frank Ireland reported that only the "little fellow" has responded so far. Nothing has been received from those in a better position to help the drive and failure of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to heed an appeal to canvas the business firms has been disappointing.

A.B.C. officials remain hopeful, however, that the response will improve after the week end payday.

Added impetus to the final push will be provided by Ted Norbert, who has agreed to manage the Athletics if the drive is successful. Norbert will arrive in town this morning to add his support to the drive.

Cagers Expect Revival Of Kinsmen Tournament

Revival of the popular Kinsmen Basketball Tournament of early post-war years is almost a certainty.

Pat Horgan, manager of Victoria Individuals, announced last night that tentative plans to hold the tournament before the Vancouver Island senior "A" playoffs next month are virtually completed. All that is needed is final approval of the main body of the Kinsmen Club.

Horgan announced that tentative plans, arranged with Jack Phillion of the Kinsmen Club call for a two-day tournament February 8 and 9. Island playoffs are scheduled to begin on February 15.

ALPINE, G-MEN ACCEPT

Invitations have been extended to Seattle Alpine Dairy, present cup holders; Bellingham G-Men, who play Individuals tonight, and Alberni Athletics. Seattle and Bellingham have already signified their willingness to compete. If Alberni has previous commitments, an invitation will be extended to one of the Vancouver quintettes or another top Seattle squad.

Hoping that the tournament will attract the largest basketball crowds in recent years, officials are planning to stage the games at the badminton hall or Bay Street Armory. Two games will be played each night with the Friday night winners meeting for the trophy in Saturday's headliner and the Friday losers clashing in the preliminary.

DRAMATIC MOMENT

Ardent basketball fans will long remember Norm Baker's last-second basket that gave Pat Bay Gremlin's an upset victory over Fort Lewis Warriors in the 1945 tournament. Alpines defeated Gremlins in the final that year and regained possession of the $500 trophy in the last tournament played four years ago.

Pruden Named New Coach Of Commandos

Arnie Ferguson, playing-coach of Victoria Shamrocks, appears likely to be the only returning coach in the Inter-City Lacrosse League this season. The three mainland clubs have already named new coaches and a change is indicated at Nanaimo.

In surprise announcement from Vancouver yesterday, Art Pruden was named new coach of New Westminster Commandos, replacing Ralph Douglas. Previously Clary Jenion was appointed coach of North Shore Indians and Walt Lee replaced Johnny Cavallin as coach of Vancouver Combines. Ferguson was reappointed coach of Shamrocks earlier in the week.

Douglas said yesterday, "The club felt I was not playing the youngsters enough last year."

Both Douglas and Eddie Gilmore, former inter-city league coach, have been mentioned as candidates for the Nanaimo job. Douglas is almost automatically ruled out as a league ruling requires players and officials to be residents of the area represented by the team. Douglas is a mainland resident.

Second Charge Facing Ryan

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS)—Tommy Ryan, already awaiting hearing on the Madison Square Garden brawl that cost him his license as a fight manager, was arrested on another assault charge today.

The new charge was brought by Dana Beheshti, 28-year-old Iranian education official, who said he was en route to address a group of students in Greenwich Village Monday night when Ryan and six other men beat him up after an argument over a parking space.

Ryan, whose real name is Eboli, declared that Beheshti attacked him. He was paroled in his own custody. A similar charge brought by Beheshti against Ryan's brother Patsy was dismissed for lack of positive identification.

Pro Golf Stars Little Hurt In Car Crash

PAHOKEE, Fla., Jan. 25 (AP)—Professional golfers Peggy Kirk and Betty Jameson escaped serious injuries today in an automobile smashup near here.

Miss Kirk's car, driven by Miss Jameson, skidded on a wet highway, piled into a tree and came to rest on the edge of a roadside canal.

They were taken to a hospital in Everglades.

Miss Kirk, reached by telephone, said she was only bruised "and Betty was thrown out of the car but didn't get a scratch. We were awfully lucky."

Highway patrolman J. P. Bertrand said the car was a total loss.

Miss Kirk said she and Miss Jameson were headed for Miami to watch the final rounds of the Doherty Women's Amateur Golf Tournament at the Miami Country Club and to play in the Weathervane Tournament in Miami Feb. 16-17.

Vic High Totems Get Hot; Ruin Royal Roads, 55-27

By IAN GLENDAY

Victoria High Totems have had their ups and downs on the maple courts this season, but last night at the Victoria High gym there was no doubt, to a fair-sized crowd of loyal student supporters, that the home team was "hot."

Playing without Porky Andrews at the helm, but nevertheless showing the benefits of the long hours he has spent with his charges, the city hoopsters rolled to an easy 55-27 win over Royal Roads in the opening game of the Inter-scholastic Basketball League. Andrews missed the contest due to a business engagement, but he probably would have been pleased at what he would have seen.

Totems showed little resemblance to the squad that lost to the Cadets in an exhibition game last Monday as they built up a huge early lead and checked the hard-driving visitors to a standstill.

Free shots told a big part of the story. The city students converted 15 out of 20 attempts while the losers could manage only seven of 17 tries.

Jack Shields topped all scorers with 14 points, while Len Anderson added 10 for Totems. Graham was high man for the losers with 12.

In the opener, Victoria High girls stopped Normal School 22-14, while the Totems B squad trounced Sooke Intermediate A, 56-34 in the second game.

Line-ups follow:

Victoria High Girls—Briggs, Teiman 8, Howarth, Calder 4, Heal 6, Speed, Ross, McMillan, Yarama—22.

Normal Girls—Hume 3, Schuler 4, Fletcher, Jackson 3, Dunkley, Harstone 6, Kelly, Shuster, Hoffman, Yardley—14.

Victoria High Totems B—Ash 14, Woolett 2, White 16, Zarry 8, Donahue 6, Boyland 7, Kirchner 3—56.

Alcos, Duncan Tangle Today

Officials of the Victoria and District Football Association have apparently out-waited the weather.

Hoping all week that the snow would be gone by the week end, secretary Don Gray reported yesterday that the Lower Beacon Hill ground was in "good" shape and that today's game would definitely be played.

Alcos are scheduled to meet Duncan Native Sons in a postponed game today starting at 2.30 p.m. Tomorrow, Esquimalt will tangle with Legion on the same grounds.

Tempers Flare in Tennis As U.S. Players Defeated

ADELAIDE, Australia, Jan. 26 (Saturday) (AP)—Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor retained their Australian national tennis doubles title today beating Mervyn Rose and Don Candy in the final, 6-4, 7-5, 6-3.

Thelma Long won the women's title for the first time. She beat Helen Angwin, 6-2, 6-3. Miss Angwin had eliminated Nancye Bolton, the defending champion, in the semifinals.

ADELAIDE, Jan. 25 (AP)—Dick Savitt created a scene local fans will long remember as he lost to Ken McGregor, 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, in the semi-finals of the Australian championships today.

Irked because the tall Australian was permitted to don spiked shoes after a brief shower in the fourth set, the Orange, N.J., star sat down in a sideline chair and refused to continue play for 13 minutes. Not until Sir Norman Brookes, president of the Australian association, talked to him did Savitt consent to resume play.

After the match, Savitt said he had thought it unfair for his opponent to wear spikes when he, Savitt, did not possess a pair.

The defeat of Savitt, the defending champion, brought about an all-Australian final on Monday between McGregor and his Davis Cup teammate, Frank Sedgman. Playing brilliantly, Sedgman overwhelmed Mervyn Rose in the other semi-final, 6-2, 6-4, 6-2.

An hour after his singles defeat, Savitt took the court with his doubles partner, Hamilton Richardson, and lost the deciding set of an interrupted semi-final match to Sedgman and McGregor, 6-2. The final score was 6-3, 3-6, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2. Sedgman and McGregor will play Mervyn Rose and Don Candy in tomorrow's final.

There was a brief flare-up during the doubles playoff. After Savitt and Sedgman had won their opening services, Richardson was foot-faulted three times on the first two points of his delivery. Savitt waved his arms and both Americans went to the official to ask the reason. Richardson was told he was swinging his right foot over the line.

Soccer School Class Slated For Tuesday

Jimmy Allan, secretary of the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association, has issued a reminder to all managers, coaches, trainers and officials that the next class in the Dominion Football Association Soccer School will be held Tuesday.

The instruction, second class in the series, will be held at civil defense headquarters in the market building, Cormorant Street, at 7.30 p.m.

The classes are conducted by George Kulai and Ed Ball and any player or ex-player interested in managing or coaching a junior team should attend these classes.

No games have been scheduled in the association today but officials are hopeful that the field will be fit by tomorrow and have tentatively scheduled four matches.

Junior division—1 p.m., Victoria College Vikings vs. Victoria Commons, Shelbourne Street Park; 2.30 p.m., Hoaneys vs. Cowichan Braves, Shelbourne Street Park.

Division I—1 p.m., Tillicums vs. Maycock Optical, Lower Beacon Hill.

Division II—1 p.m., Army, Navy and Air Force Vets vs. Hardy Cycles, Upper Beacon Hill.

Cougars Upset Huskies, 56-50

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 25 (INS)—Washington State outraced Washington and upset the touted Huskies, 56 to 50 before 4,500 rabid basketball fans at Pullman tonight.

Washington State got hot in the second and fourth quarters to overcome Husky leads even though the taller Washington players controlled the backboards throughout the game.

Mullins led the scoring with 17 points. Bob Houbregs, Washington's stellar centre, was held to 12 by tight guarding, but his total was high for the losers anyway.

Flyers Halt Late Drive Of Canucks

Vancouver Canucks' drive to a Pacific Coast Hockey League play-off berth was temporarily halted last night when Edmonton Flyers handed them a 5-1 setback before 4,555 fans at Edmonton.

The win enabled the Flyers, who have won five and tied three of their last nine games, to move into a third-place tie with the idle Tacoma Rockets.

It was Canucks' second loss against six victories and a tie in their last eight games.

Larry Popein, Vancouver's outstanding rookie, robbed Flyer goalie Bill Brennan of a shutout with less than two minutes left in the game. Brennan had to make only 13 saves against 33 for Nick Pidsodny at the other end as Flyers held a wide edge in running up a 5-0 lead.

VANCOUVER 1, EDMONTON 5

Vancouver—Goal, Pidsodny; defense, Latell, Tarala, Lofvendahl, Currie; forwards, Simon, Plumb, Groves, Smith, Popein, Unger, Leier, Harshburg, Hagen.

Blocs—Pidsodny, 18, 11, 12—41; Brennan 2, 7, 4—13.

WANDERERS PRACTICE

Since all games have been postponed in the Victoria Rugby Union this week-end, Oak Bay Wanderers will hold a workout at Windsor Park today at 2.30 p.m.

Trio of Upsets Feature Doherty Quarter-Finals

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 25 (INS)—The medalist, the defending champion and the women's national amateur champion all fell by the wayside today in the quarter-final round of the 20th annual Helen Lee Doherty Golf Tourney at the Miami Country Club.

Biggest upset of the day came when trans-Mississippi titlist Mary Ann Downey thrashed amateur queen Dot Kirby, 7 and 6.

Miss Downey closed out the match on the 12th hole after standing four-up at the turn. Her medal score at the end of the 12 holes was 48, while Miss Kirby needed 55 blows to reach this point.

Barbara Romack, 18-year-old long-ball hitter from Sacramento, ousted defending champion Claire Doran, 1 up. Miss Romack, who has been playing golf only three years, consistently boomed out 230-yard tee shots to overcome her more experienced rival.

Medalist Mae Murray was unable to survive the traditional jinx, wilting under the blistering pace set by youthful Mary Lena Faulk, 5 and 4.

In the other quarter final match, Cuban champion Betty Rowland ousted Pat Garner of Midland, Tex., 3 and 2.

Tomorrow's semi-final battles pit Miss Romack against Miss Downey and Miss Faulk against Miss Rowland.

Boros Retains Phoenix Lead

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 25 (AP)—Julius Boros, the 210-pound professional from Mid Pines, N.C., shot sub-par golf again today and retained the lead in the $10,000 Phoenix Open tournament at the end of the second round.

Boros had a two-under-par 69, which, with his leading 66 of yesterday, gave him 135 and a two-stroke margin over the always dangerous veteran, Lloyd Mangrum.

Mangrum, leading money winner of 1951, had a 69 to go with his 68 of yesterday, and with a little luck on his putting might have caught up with Boros, who is making only his second swing with the touring pros.

Scene of the Open is the 6,578-yard Phoenix Country Club course with a 36-35—71 par.

Most of today's putting luck went to Johnny Revolta, who has been traveling with the golfers for almost 20 years.

Revolta needed only 22 putts for his round, finishing with a 67 and a 36-hole total of 138. He was one over par with a 37 on his first nine today, but sizzled back in a five-under 30, the lowest score for this distance thus far in the tournament. He needed only nine putts on the final nine holes.

Revolta wound up deadlocked with Cary Middlecoff. Middlecoff, who had a 68 yesterday, missed a four-foot putt on the 18th today to wind up with a 70.

It took a score of 148 or better for a pro to remain in the going. That left one negro professional in this tourney, the first P.G.A.-sponsored event in which negro professionals have been allowed to compete. Ted Rhodes of Los Angeles had an erratic 77 to go with his 71 of yesterday and barely stayed in the running.

Bill Spiller of Los Angeles, the other negro pro entered, had a 156 for the 36 holes and went out after today's play.

Draw Luck Results in Dream Game; Hotspurs, Newcastle to Do Battle

By EDWIN S. JOHNSON

LONDON, Jan. 25 (CP). — Sizzling cup-tie fever has gripped London's rabid soccer fans following the luck of the draw which pits the present cup-holders, Newcastle United, against league champions Tottenham Hotspur in the fourth round Feb. 2.

The mad scramble for available tickets has already started [illegible] 75,000 assured the "sold out" sign will be out long before the dream game gets under way at White Hart Lane, the Spurs' home ground.

This is a match some of the experts say should have graced Wembley on cup final day, and they are predicting without any reservations that the winner is a well-nigh certainty to go on to take the cup.

Newcastle's rugged representatives have set their hearts on a repeat performance of last year's Wembley success against Blackpool. And if they can turn the trick they will be the first club to win the classic two years in succession since Blackburn Rovers accomplished the feat 60 years ago.

DUBBED "KILLERS"

In their march to the final last year Newcastle were dubbed the "killers" by winning most of [illegible] late-game rallies.

They demonstrated in the third-round draw against Aston Villa earlier this month that they have retained their flair for amazing recovery. Trailing by one goal with only eight minutes to go they suddenly found their scoring punch and walked off the field winners by a 4-2 score.

The Tynesiders boast an enviable record in the cup competitions. They have been finalists on eight occasions and have won the cup four times, against only two victories for Tottenham in as many appearances. The Northerners still have seven of last year's triumphant team in their line-up, but in the 1952 edition of the Spurs they face a formidable test.

The teams have already met three times this season, twice in regular league fixtures and again for the Football Association Charity Shield. Spurs were swamped 7-2 in the first encounter last September, but won the other two by identical 2-1 scores.

TWICE BEFORE

The sides have also met twice before in cup competition. In 1904-5, after a draw at White Hart Lane, Newcastle scored a decisive 4-0 victory in the replay. Thirty years later Tottenham gained belated revenge on their home grounds with a 2-0 triumph.

Stanley Seymour, Newcastle's director and acting-manager, admits that White Hart Lane has never been a lucky ground for his team.

"But this time the worst we expect is a draw and I wouldn't be at all surprised if the winners go on to win the cup," he said.

The bookmakers, however, are not so sure. The wise money, they say, is riding on Arsenal at the narrow odds of 11-2. Tottenham is bracketed with Portsmouth and Liverpool at 8-1 and Burnley is 9-1. Newcastle supporters on the other hand have a chance of cashing in at odds of 14-1, the same as the call-over on Chelsea's unpredictable pensioners.

Oakland Editor Defends Hope, Crosby as Golfers

OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 25 (AP)—Ed Schoenfeld, golf editor of The Oakland Tribune, said today that the London newspaper which asked Bob Hope and Bing Crosby to stay away from the British Amateur Golf championship "was way off base."

"The stars are top amateurs as well as outstanding entertainers who have leaned over backwards to help build golf," Schoenfeld wrote in his column.

"Crosby and Hope, both 4 handicappers, deserve a chance to play for the championship just like the next guy.

"Jimmy Demaret agrees that Hope is a fine player. I still recall the great shot Hope made on the 14th hole at Pebble Beach in the final round.

"Bob sliced a wood shot around a tree on his third shot and laid the ball an inch from the cup. Hope still holds the course record of 66 made on the Palm Spring course.

"Crosby goes way back in golf. He's a former caddy. He toted bags as a kid in Spokane. Bing [illegible] at the Lakeside Golf Club in Los Angeles. He was the first member ever to win the club championship three times.

"Any golfer will tell you how difficult is it to qualify for the U.S. Amateur golf championship. Bing did it in 1941, although he didn't fare too well.

"Gene Sarazen, one of golf's masters, once said about Crosby's golf game: 'If Bing had been able to devote himself to the game with the concentration of the other players he'd have been one of the best amateur golfers in the United States.'"

West Indies Trails Aussies In Fifth Test

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 25 (Reuters)—West Indies today were 52 runs behind Australia with only one first-innings wicket standing after 19 wickets had fallen on the first day of the fifth and last test here.

Australia, winning the toss, batted first and were all out for 116, 40 minutes before tea. West Indies had replied with 64 for nine wickets by the close.

Australia already have assured themselves of winning the series, having won three of the four previous tests to the West Indies' one.

Fast bowlers were responsible for all today's wickets, but the collapse of both sides can also be attributed to some bad batting.

Heavy weather conditions the temperature sometimes reached 108 degrees gave the speed bowlers a lot of assistance. Gerry Gomez was the star for the West Indies with seven wickets for 55 runs. He was ably supported by Frank Worrell, who took three for 42.

A devastating first over after tea by Ray Lindwall, in which he took the wickets of Walcott and Weekes for no runs, began the West Indies' collapse. Keith Miller and Bill Johnston were quick to follow up the advantage and at the close Miller had taken four for 16, Johnston had three for 23 and Lindwall two for 19.

Kiser to Try For Title Again

Popular Jack Kiser will get his second chance to wrest the world light-heavyweight wrestling title from Andy Tremaine when he meets the champion in the feature bout of the regular wrestling card at the Bay Street Armory tonight.

A new feature on local wrestling cards is a double semi-main event. Con Bruno will tangle with Ted Evans and Ben Sherman will match holds with George Strickland.

Steve Jossi of Victoria will grapple with Vancouver's Lionel Hankin in the opener.

Golf--- Here's How

By SAM SNEAD
Golf's Greatest Player-Teacher

See if you can spot a glaring flaw in this golfer's backswing. All right, let's go. The hands have not gripped the club in the overlapping position described yesterday. Therefore, they are operating as separate tools instead of one tool. The player has pronated his left wrist. This has flattened out the club shaft to nearly a horizontal position. Also, notice that his left shoulder is as high as his right, whereas it should be lower, permitting his shoulders to pivot in a more perpendicular plane thus getting a more perpendicular swing. Because of pronating his wrists and pivoting his shoulders in a flat plane—he is headed for a very flat swing. Let's in imagination, give him a correct grip on the club which, from yesterday's lesson, you know how to do. We would have the cocking of the wrists only just barely started at this stage of the swing. The player's right shoulder would be rising and his left shoulder would be lowering, right?

Sale of Stock To Pirates Draws Protest

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25 (INS). —A Pacific Coast League protest against the recent sale of a minority block of Hollywood Stars stock to the Pittsburgh Pirates was disclosed today.

The protest, addressed to baseball commissioner Ford Frick and minor czar George Trautman, reportedly was made at the insistence of Coast League owners who feared control of the Stars may ultimately pass to the Pirates.

Vice-president Bob Cobb of the Pirates recently purchased 677 shares of the club, shortly after the P.C.L. was given "open" classification.

Pacific Coast baseball owners and executives generally feel that such a sale hampers the P.C.L.'s chances of gaining major league status.

Doug Grimston Concerned Over Mercurys

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25 (CP).—Doug Grimston, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said Friday he's a little worried about the strength of the Canadian Olympic Hockey team, Edmonton Mercurys.

"I don't like this situation over there at all," he said. We had expected the Mercurys to play against some of the teams they'll meet in the Olympics. But so far they have met only pushovers and the schedule doesn't appear to call for anything else."

Grimson said the C.A.H.A. may fly reinforcements to Europe.

Grimston will leave by air Feb. 5 for the Olympic Winter Games at Oslo.

'Twadna Be Sae Canny, D'ye Ken Nae ta Hae Eaten the Twa o' Them

By BRIAN LOUGHNAN

Och, what a nicht!

Boss, you shouldna' hae sent me to twa Burns' suppers on the one nicht. Hae ye ever eaten haggis twice o' an evening?

There were 200 of all the clans at the 92nd annual Burns' Nicht of St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society, and another 200 at the 30th annual dinner of Victoria Burns' Club.

And the things they say to that pudding!

At each dinner it's brought in behind a piper, and it's carried head-high. Everyone stands and they clap to the tune the pipers play.

Pipe Major J. R. Marrs piped in the St. Andrew's and Caledonian haggis. At the Burns' Club piper Donald Graham did the honors.

Here's what they say to it:

"Fair fa yer sonsie face,
Great chieftain o' the puddin' race;
Aboon them a' ye tak yer place,
Painch, tripe or thairm,
Weil are ye wordy o' a grace
As lang's ma airm."

With that they plunge a carving knife into the pudding with a warlike gesture. It was done by Jack Robertson for the St. Andrew's and Caledonians, and by A. J. Allnutt at the Burns' Club.

And those sad, sobbing Scottish songs they sing! Like "My Heart Is Sair," sung by Miss Louise Martin, and "Lass o' Ballochmyle," sung by John Bell.

Aye, and everything went agley—there was a lady gave the toast to the "Immortal Memory" at the St. Andrew's and Caledonian dinner. She was Alderman Mrs. Margaret Christie, and it was the first time in 92 years the toast was spoken by anyone but a man.

At the Burns' Club it was Dr. J. M. Ewing who gave the toast.

The menus were a wee bit hard to read, since I didna' wear my Scottish plaid tie. Scotch Broth was easy, but Baps fooled me. Roastit Bubbly Jock turned out to be turkey, with Mashed Neeps and Chappit Tatties.

The Ait Cakes in Farls were tasty, as were the Hame Baked Scones Wi' Butter.

It was mainly a matter o' scootin' betwixt the two dinners in time to catch a bit o' both haggises, and to take part in the St. Andrew's and Caledonian dance at the end of the program.

Have you ever danced a quadrille, an eightsome reel, a Highland schottische and a dance called Dashing White Sergeant on two helpings of haggis?

But they kept telling me "A Man's a Man for A' That" and one kilted gentleman suggested, "Help yersel' to the haggis, laddie, an' dinna fash yersel'."

And for the honor of The Daily Colonist and Auld Scotland, I didna' fash mysel' (as far as I know).

Increased Air, Sea Transportation To Speed Flow of Immigrants

WINNIPEG, Jan. 25 (CP) — The Canadian government has made arrangements to boost the flow of immigrants from the United Kingdom by increased air and sea transportation, Immigration Minister Harris announced tonight.

Starting next month, the government will charter a B.O.A.C. Stratocruiser aircraft to make one flight weekly to Canada carrying 70 immigrants each time.

"This service, although providing for only a comparatively small group, will, nevertheless, be important because it will assist the speedy passage here of highly skilled technicians who are needed in our defense industries," he said.

In addition, the Canadian government has arranged for an additional 38 sailings from United Kingdom ports to Canada this year.

The big problem in getting more new citizens from Britain in 1951 was transportation, Mr. Harris said in a speech at a Burns Night banquet.

"During the whole of 1951 we were processing more immigrants in the United Kingdom than were leaving by the limited transportation facilities available. Every month showed a greater number approved than had been admitted, with the result that at the end of the year approximately 20,000 residents of Great Britain were still awaiting passage to Canada.

"We are quite satisfied that we can bring these and others who now are applying during 1952 and that the numbers will be increased substantially this year."

The B.O.A.C. passage will be in addition to the special T.C.A. plan already in operation. This assisted air-travel plan is made available to immigrants at the tourist rate for sea passage. About 7,500 Britons were moved to Canada last year in this way.

One element of the valuable fertilizer, phosphate of lime, is obtained from slag, left in making basic steel.

Notice of Firing Practice

Anti-aircraft firing practice will be conducted from the vicinity of ALBERT HEAD as follows:

30 JAN. 52—1000 hours to 1200 hours

31 JAN. 52—1300 hours to 1600 hours
1 FEB. 52—1000 hours to 1200 hours
1300 hours to 1600 hours
2 FEB. 52—0900 hours to 1200 hours

Practice will be conducted seawards [illegible] and BROTCHIE LEDGE and the danger area will extend for seven (7) miles.

Bert Young, a Norfolk man with grey hair and bright weathered cheeks, is a farmer who believes in the plow.

"Plow 12 inches deep every four years," says farmer Young and he should know. He has managed a Dominion Experimental Farm at Koksilah near Duncan for the past 25 years.

There is still some Norfolk in his speech. He drops unnecessary short words from his sentences and while he is showing visitors the 134 acres of his farm he stops frequently to emphasize a point with an engaging smile.

Visitors discover that he has an astute grasp of world affairs. He is as familiar with international politics as he is with the newest aluminum irrigation sprinklers and the results of Russian agricultural experiments.

RUSSIAN GRAIN GOOD

"Those Russians are no fools in farming," he says. He tried some Russian grain seed and found it very good.

During the past dry summer he experimented with aluminum pipe sprinklers for the government and he believes the pipes ...

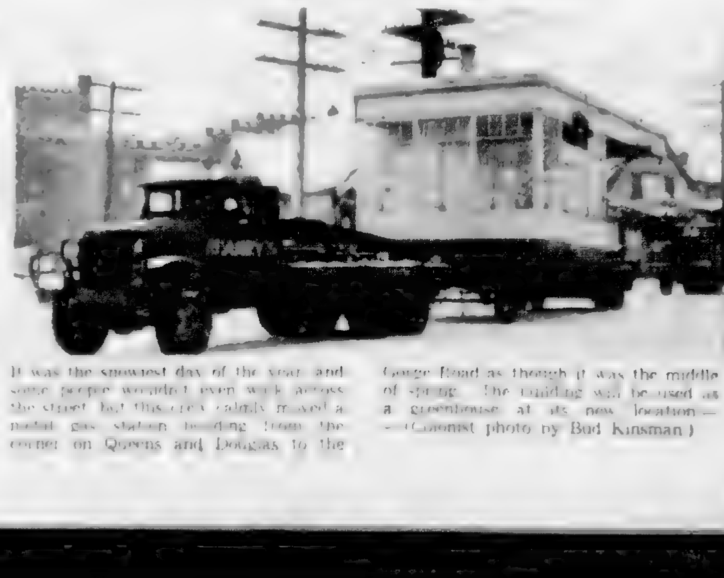

... on this island in a dry ...

Drought is only one of a long list of troubles that are ... farmers from the soil, Bert Young says.

"It costs as much for implements as for the whole farm these days," he says. ...

Snow Fails to Halt Moving Project

It was the snowiest day of the year and some people wouldn't even walk across the street but this crew calmly moved a ... gas station building from the corner on Queens and Douglas to the Gorge Road as though it was the middle of spring. The building will be used as a greenhouse at its new location.—(Colonist photo by Bud Kinsman.)

Native Woods Back in Style

NEW YORK, Jan. 25 (INS). — The trend toward informal modern living has brought native American woods back into fashion for furniture.

Woods like maple, pine, oak, cherry and other fruit woods drew most of the attention at this season's showing of new furniture. All of these woods take light natural finishes that provide warmth in color, and also are easy to keep.

Old-time favorites, like birdseye maple and crotch mahogany have re-appeared with modern touches. Small modern tables with plank type tops of birdseye maple have hardwood bases finished in an ebony lacquer for contrast.

Lacquer is the favorite finish on wood this season because it has the quality of resisting heat and can be cleaned easily with a damp cloth.

OAK BAY
MONTEREY SCHOOL DISTRICT
$8950 Good homes in Oak Bay at low prices "are hard to find" .... Well folks, we've found one! It's five full-sized rooms in a through hall plan. Full cement basement, of course. It's on a well-kept lot on a really nice street. Yearly taxes are about $76. When one considers that a lot in this area is worth $1,500 and that you would have to be able to build this home for about $7,500 it looks pretty good, doesn't it?

HUNDREDS of years ago—during the period of the Reformation in the 16th century—there were areas of Scotland, in the North and the South, which were largely without churches or ordained clergy. And the practical Scots, making the best of the situation, devised their own marriage regulations, which included a form of temporary marriage known as Handfisting. The couple made a pledge while holding hands, and then could live together for a year and a day. Afterwards, they could either be married on a permanent basis or, if they chose, become single again. If there was a child, the party objecting to the permanent arrangement had to support it. The practice became obsolete with the expansion of the church in the 18th century.

FOR SALE—EXCLUSIVE
A large, modernized house situated on secluded waterfront property in the SIDNEY district. This stucco house stands on almost an acre of land landscaped with lawns, gardens and fruit trees and is wonderfully sheltered from winds. There is about 200 feet of waterfront with good anchorage. The house is full of attractions which include: Two fireplaces and hot-water Oil-O-Matic with 600-gallon tank; four good-sized bedrooms with view windows; spacious living room with plate glass windows and expansive view of sea and islands; bright and roomy dining room (both dining room and living room have oak floors); sun room or den with fireplace; modern kitchen (electric) and bathroom; a full, roomy basement (with plumbing) suitable for workshop, gameroom, etc. The owner was forced to leave hurriedly to take up an appointment elsewhere and is most desirous of selling the property as soon as possible. It is definitely a year-round residence with all the attractions of a summer home. For a quick sale it is offered at $21,000. Contact S. L. Pope, Sidney Insurance & Realty, Beacon Avenue, Sidney. Phone Sidney 235.

U.B.C. to Have Special School Of Physical Ed

A school of physical education has been established to integrate and supervise physical education and sports activities at the University of British Columbia, it was announced yesterday.

The senate and board of governors approved establishment of the school, which will be responsible for degree courses in physical education and programs for men and women in first and second-year courses. Intra-mural and inter-collegiate sports events will be included.

Administrative jurisdiction is under the dean of the faculty of arts and sciences and the school actions will be subject to consideration by a council consisting of 33 representatives of faculties and departments.

Tout Used Mails To Sell System

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25 (AP)—William W. Wall, of Reading, Pa., was fined $200 Thursday after postal inspectors said he had collected about $4,000 through the mails selling a system to beat the horses. The inspectors told the court the system was "so complicated no one could figure it out."

Culbertson on Bridge - - -

(Copyright 1952, by Ely Culbertson)

A well-known New York expert is still moaning over the fate of an opening lead he made in the recent Pairs Event of the National Tournament at Detroit. This was the deal:

South, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

NORTH
♠ 8 7 4
♥ A K 5
♦ K J 9
♣ J 8 6 2

WEST	EAST
♠ A Q 6	♠ 10 9 5 3 2
♥ Q 10 8 4	♥ 6 3
♦ Q 10 7 3	♦ 8 4 2
♣ Q 5	♣ 9 7 3

SOUTH
♠ K J
♥ J 9 7 2
♦ A 6 5
♣ A K 10 4

Our expert was West, and this was the bidding at his table, as at many others:

South	West	North	East
1 N.T.	Pass	3 N.T.	Pass
Pass	Pass

After long consideration, our expert selected as his opening lead the ace of spades! East gave hearty encouragement by playing the ten, and, when West saw the jack fall from the South hand, he was glad to follow up with the queen of spades.

This bit of high imagination on West's part should have been better rewarded than it was, but South now proceeded to make a beautiful guess. Winning the second trick with the spade king, he cashed the club ace, then went to dummy in hearts and led the club jack. West was sure that his adversary was going to let the jack ride, but, to his disgust, South banged down the king of clubs and dropped West's blank queen.

Our expert did pretty well by holding thhe enemy to exactly three no-trump — South "ran" with nine tricks—but he was disconsolate over the fact that his clairvoyant lead had not meant the defeat of the hand.

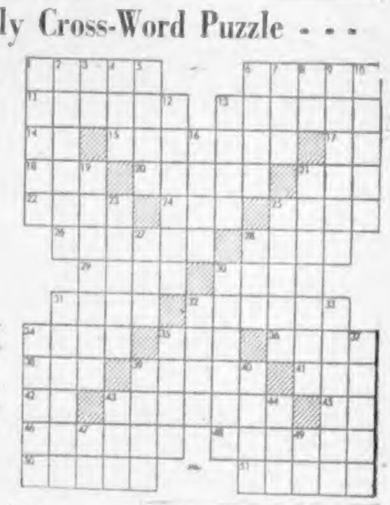

Discussing the lead, West pointed out that his main objective had been to avoid a guess between a heart and a diamond lead, either of which could so easily cost a trick, whereas by leading the spade ace he could still make the spade queen under various conditions. The fact that West "hit" his partner so well in spades was simply a by-product. It was too bad that West's imagination did not meet with full success. His lead of the spade ace was excellent under the circumstances.

Uncle Wiggily Story - - -

By Howard Garis

GRANDPA WHACKUM

When Uncle Wiggily and his coasting sled skidded off the middle of the slide on Snow Hill, the rabbit gentleman fell down deep inside a big drift. It was a very deep drift of snow and, for a moment, Uncle Wiggily thought he was never going to reach the bottom.

But all snowdrifts, however large and deep they may be, must have a bottom. And in a short time, though it seemed very long to the rabbit gentleman, Mr. Longears had reached the bottom of this drift. Then he stopped falling.

But all around Uncle Wiggily was snow. There was snow in front of him. There was snow behind him. There was snow at his left paw side and snow at his right paw side.

"How am I ever going to get out of this big snowdrift?" asked Uncle Wiggily of himself. There was no one else to ask for Mr. Longears was all alone inside the deep drift. Oh, of course there was Buster's sled, but there was no use talking to that for the sled could neither hear nor speak.

So, as there was no one with him inside the drift who could answer the question he had asked, Uncle Wiggily had to answer it himself.

"HELP! HELP! HELP!"

"How am I ever to get out of this drift?" he asked again. Then he answered himself by saying: "I must get out of the top where I came in. That ought to be easy. I will just bob out the same way I bobbed in."

The rabbit gentleman was in a sort of cave inside the big snowdrift. He now looked up to see the hole through which he had fallen.

"Yes, there it is," said Mr. Longears as he saw the snow hole over his head. "Now to climb up and get out."

Uncle Wiggily did not want to climb out of the hole in the snowdrift without taking Buster's sled with him. For he knew his Rabbit Scout would want to go coasting when it was recess time at Hollow Tree School.

"So I must take Buster's sled with me when I climb up out of this snowdrift," said Uncle Wiggily to himself. He looped the rope of the sled over his left paw and then started to climb up one of the sides of the snow hole. If you have ever tried to climb out of a deep snowdrift you know it is not easy. Uncle Wiggily found it very hard. He would climb up a little way. Then he would slip back again and tumble down in a heap.

Of course tumbling down didn't hurt the jolly old rabbit gentleman, for the snow was very soft to fall on. But the rope of the sled tangled around the front and hind legs of Mr. Longears. So, after he had climbed up and had fallen down about half a dozen times, Uncle Wiggily said:

"I think I shall have to leave Buster's sled here in the snowdrift. But, after I get out I will go to Hollow Tree School and get Mr. Coke, the rat gentleman janitor to come with his shovel and dig out Buster's sled. That's what I'll do."

So Uncle Wiggily untangled himself from the sled rope and tried to climb up all by himself. But he couldn't do it. As soon as he had climbed up a little way out of the snow hole, back he fell again. So, after trying half a dozen times, Mr. Longears felt tired. He sat down on Buster's sled to rest.

"Oh, dear me hum suz dud and a lollipop on the end of an icicle," murmured Mr. Longears. "It doesn't seem as if I would ever get out of this hole. I can't climb to the top and I can't dig my way through the sides for I have no shovel. What shall I do? Perhaps I had better call for help." So the rabbit uncle twinkled his pink nose and shouted: "HELP! HELP! HELP!"

To his surprise a voice at the top of the hole called down.

"Who wants help?" asked someone.

"Who are you?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I am Grandpa Whackum the beaver," was the answer. Will Grandpa Whackum help Uncle Wiggily out of the snow hole?

We shall hear more about that in the story tomorrow, if the looking glass will please stop peeking through the keyhole to see if the television is reading the wallpaper.

Blaze Severely Damages Troller

Damage estimated at $8,000 resulted in troller Sea Elk II Wednesday when fire ate away all housing as vessel was off Sombino Point, on West Coast. Alfred Webb, Victoria, fought blaze with hand extinguisher for short while until nearby tug San Juan Prince rushed to aid with fire hose. Tug towed burned fishboat to McKay, Cormack Ltd. here. Owner of burned vessel, Bert White, is expected here shortly. He is a cook in a West Coast tug. Here, Andrew Brown and Charles Ash check engine and say it can be returned to running order.—(Colonist photo by Bud Kinsman.)

Surveyor Scales Sum of Salvage Claimed by Canny Clam-Digger

MARINE AND TRAVEL NEWS

Capt. William Stacey, surveyor to Marine Underwriters, traveled to Canoe Cove yesterday morning to convince an Indian clam digger that holding a retrieved vessel for 80 per cent of its value was "asking a bit too much."

The Indian argued for some time about his right to retain the vessel and collect the salvage fee, but finally agreed to a more reasonable settlement, and carried on into the Gulf of Georgia to continue his clam expedition.

The craft in question is the 20-foot cabin cruiser Minor, owned by Coal Island Ltd. She struck a reef just after leaving Canoe Cove early last Wednesday morning and sank in a blinding snowstorm. Three men were aboard heading for Coal Island, about a mile from Canoe Cove.

HEARD YELLS

Norman Greenhill, working at Canoe Cove Shipyards Ltd., heard yells from the work party as the small boat was pounded onto the rocks. He rushed for a boat and went to help . . . only to find the Indian clam digger had already rescued the struggling men from the water. He had also put a line on the sinking cabin cruiser and towed it to the Canoe Cove shipyard.

All through that day and Thursday he wouldn't let anyone get near the salvaged vessel.

Capt. Stacey explained various salvage matters to the Indian yesterday. The clam digger will get salvage payment, but not as much as he originally sought.

Baseball Affects Ship's Name

Because Americans think so much of their national sport, one lend-lease ship—and only one—served throughout the war with its original name.

That vessel is the freighter Ss. Lassell, now loading at Ogden Point docks. That's her third name.

She is a Liberty-type ship, built at a Baltimore shipyard, and launched in late September of 1943.

She was christened Ss. John J. McGraw, after former manager of the New York Giants and one of the most colorful figures in American baseball. It was McGraw, the records show, who introduced baseball to Europe and the Orient. He died in 1934.

Baseball takes up even more of the ship's background. She was christened by McGraw's widow, and the bottle of champagne she smashed over its bow was attached to a baseball bat.

The freighter was delivered to Britain on a "lend-lease" basis, and the British immediately changed her name, this time to Samariz.

Word of the name change reached the United States within a short time, and baseball clubs and organizations throughout America aroused such a fuss that government authorities of both countries decided to revert to the original name.

So the freighter served as the John J. McGraw until the end of hostilities.

Then she was sold to Lamport & Hope Line Ltd., of Liverpool, Eng., and the ship received her present name.

"She's the only lend-lease ship produced by the U.S. that served in the war with her original name," said chief officer James Edgar.

Veteran Paper, Brandon Sun Celebrates 70th Anniversary

One of the oldest papers in Western Canada celebrated its 70th anniversary last week.

The Brandon Sun, Brandon, Manitoba, published its first edition on Thursday, Jan. 19, 1882, under the guidance of publisher Will J. White.

Since that time, six publishers have been at the helm of the paper, and the present publisher, Ernest C. Whitehead, a newspaper man of 38 years' experience, is president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers' Association.

The Sun, first published in a small office on the west side of Twelfth Street near Rosser Avenue, has grown up into a progressive, modern newspaper.

Cultus Lake Fish Eggs Face Test at Damsite

VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 25 (CP).—Salmon eggs from the Cultus Lake government hatchery will help British Columbia and Washington State fisheries experts find a solution to a threat presented to fish runs by power dams.

The 150,000 salmon eggs—along with another 50,000 from Skagit River—will be taken to the Marblemount Hatchery in Washington where they will be reared and sacrificed for science.

In the spring, these fish will be driven over a 265-foot dam at Concrete, Wash., to see how many can take it.

Others will be guided to the intake of the flumes down which water tumbles at terrific pressure straight to the whirling turbines—and through them.

The survivors will be found and counted.

Previous tests have shown that a portion of those pushed over the dam, or through the turbines, escape with little more than a mild shaking up.

The results are important. More and more power dams are being built across rivers and every time a dam blocks a river used by salmon, the run is wiped out unless special steps are taken.

Getting the adult, spawning fish over the dam presents no special problem. They are trapped at the bottom of the dam and either dumped into buckets and hauled up the elevator and or put in tank trucks and driven to the top by road.

Getting the young salmon fry down to the bottom is the problem, a major one for a B.C. industry which employs 20,000 persons directly, another 72,000 indirectly, and was worth more than $70,000,000 last year.

Decision on Club Dues Made by Water Board

Payment of Union Club dues for Water Commissioner Ralph Davis was a decision made by the Greater Victoria Water Board, not a request from the commissioner himself, a city official said yesterday.

Mr. Davis has warned he will resign following a session of the water board Thursday when his salary was slashed approximately $1,500.

One of the chief points of contention raised by Mayor Claude L. Harrison and Ald. Waldo Skillings, sitting for the first meeting of the year, was the annual payment of Mr. Davis' $120 club dues and the initiation fee of $250.

The board, in October, 1950, the city official said, suggested that Mr. Davis join the Union Club for business reasons and offered to pay his dues.

Mr. Davis threatened to resign when a motion from Mayor Harrison was passed cutting the commissioner's salary from $7,900 to $7,000 a year and taking away the board car, estimated to be worth another $600 a year to the commissioner.

He has been asked to remain until a sub-committee makes a further study of the salary schedule.

Mayor Harrison has since stated he will "remain adamant" on his original motion, however.
